WELCOME BACK... ACADEMY CLASSES START SEPTEMBER 8TH

WALL is beginning its October classes (specifics are included in this newsletter) and I'm sure that the cooler fall weather will bring smiles to the faces of our members. At the recent Curriculum Committee meeting the upcoming spring semester courses were discussed. A few have been finalized and will be announced in the coming months.

The Curriculum Committee strives to select topics that will inform, entertain and appeal to the diverse interests of our members. We value your input about each of the courses that have been presented and, to this end, we request your cooperation in completing a course evaluation form and indicating any topics that you would like to have presented in the future.

Nan Cleveland
2015/2016 Wall President

From Tai Chi to Classic Macon Architecture, Wall Members explore all kinds of interesting topics in September. October looks just as good!

Wall members learned more about legendary author Flannery O'Connor in a September study of her short stories
