

President's Letter, February 2021

Greetings WALL Members,

WALL is about to enter the second month of courses, which are included in the table of courses. All courses in February are via Zoom and members without a reliable internet connection can view the presentation in Taylor 221. However, you must have signed up for on campus viewing when you registered because seating is limited, at this time only one seat is available for the Women in the Bible class.

Included in this newsletter is the financial report for the period July 1, 2020 to December 31, 2020. Notice that under expenses the line-item WALL Scholarships, this has been funded but the undergraduate recipients will be selected later this semester. Also, WALL ran an ad in the Telegraph on November 20, 2020 but because of the holidays WALL was not billed until recently and the $290.00 cost of the ad will appear in the next report.

We are all looking forward to getting back to normal. We hope that by the Fall 2021 semester we can have all live classes. The curriculum committee is working to complete the schedule, which we hope to announce in an upcoming newsletter.

The WALL Board of Directors has several openings and volunteers are needed for the positions of Curriculum Chair-Elect and President – Elect. The election of officers occurs at our May general meeting, but if you are interested in either position, or would like to join the curriculum committee, please contact me at my email address, below.
