The Mary Knox McNeill Scholarship is one of Wesleyan College's most prestigious scholarship programs. It provides two scholarships annually to first-year applicants for admission who demonstrate outstanding academic achievement along with a commitment to faith and community service. Each scholarship recipient receives a yearly award, which replaces any previously awarded institutional scholarships, and must actively participate in the Wesleyan Disciples Program. Wesleyan is committed to preparing women grounded in faith and life-long service to others. This scholarship is in memory of Mary Knox McNeill who served her church and community with a strong faith and commitment to others. Mary lived her life with a joyful enthusiasm dedicated to her family, friends and her faith. She continues to inspire us to live by her example of dedication, enthusiasm and devotion which will continue through this scholarship and the young women who receive it. Eligible candidates must possess the following minimum academic credentials: a 1000 SAT (Critical Reading and Math) or 21 ACT (Composite Score) and a 3.25 cumulative grade point average. In addition, students must submit certification of church membership from their pastor and provide one letter of support from a service agency to document community service activities. Preference will be given to students from the Central Savannah River Area of Georgia and to students who are active members of the United Methodist Church. They will be expected to interview with the Mary Knox McNeill Scholarship Selection Committee during Wesleyan's Scholarship Day, February 2012. Interested students must submit this application, as well as all required admission materials, to the Office of Admission no later than January 29, 2012. This may be submitted via fax at 478.757.4030, e-mail to admission@wesleyancollege.edu or mailed to the address above.
