WELCOME BACK... ACADEMY CLASSES START SEPTEMBER 8TH

The Wesleyan Academy for Lifelong Learning (WALL) is celebrating its 5th anniversary of presenting interesting courses designed for mature learners in middle Georgia. The hardworking members of the curriculum committee have selected courses presented by members of the Wesleyan College staff as well as by individuals in the community with special expertise. The courses selected this semester will inform, entertain and broaden our knowledge of the world in which we live. The diverse backgrounds of the Academy members also add to the educational environment. Class discussions are lively and informative.

WALL continues to offer courses of short duration taking into account that many of our members are retired and enjoy traveling throughout the year. Since our courses are usually four weeks in length and staggered throughout the semester, members can enjoy the WALL experience and have time for other activities. As a further accommodation to our members, there are no summer classes, leaving even more time for travel or other pursuits.

For those who think the classes are too short, several classes have been carried over for one or more semesters. One example is the very popular Georgia History presented by Chuck Rawls. The Chinese Language and Culture course is another example.

If you haven't yet taken advantage of the discounts and services provided by your membership, I recommend you have lunch at the Anderson Dining Hall, located in the Olive Swann Porter building. College food has come a long way from the days when we were in school. Five dollars and your membership card will buy you a great lunch with a wide variety of choices.

Having lunch on campus also gives you the opportunity to spend time with other WALL members and continue discussing the topics raised in class. Check the back of your membership card for other benefits.

I wish to thank the members of the Curriculum committee for their hard work (some of them are pictured below) and special thanks for Hannah Doan, our WALL coordinator who handles registration, classroom assignments and many other details that keep WALL functioning. (Hannah's picture is also below) We also owe special thanks to Dr. Vivia Fowler who is the Wesleyan College Provost, Vice President for Academic Affairs, Professor of Religious Studies and WALL Advisor.

Nan Cleveland
2015/2016 Wall President

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT. COURSE SUBSTITUTION

Due to circumstances that have arisen recently in the English Department, Dr. Regina Oost will be unable to teach the WALL class on Jane Austen planned for November 2015. However, Dr. Oost plans to offer the course during the Fall semester of 2016.

To fill the vacancy created by the cancellation of Dr. Oost's course, Terry Holland has kindly offered to present a course on Floral Design. That course will be held Tuesday, November 3, 10, 17 & Dec. 1, from 1:30 PM – 3:00 PM. There is no class Thanksgiving week. You may enroll in this course by calling Hannah Doan at 478-757-5233.

If you are a single course member and wish to take this additional course, you must upgrade to a semester membership by paying an additional fee of $35.
