

WESLEYAN

Wesleyan Academy for Lifelong Learning

Welcome February with new opportunities to explore at WALL!

A new month brings a vibrant new selection of classes at Wesleyan Academy for Lifelong Learning. Members can explore topics that inspire, challenge, and delight:

- Forensic Anthropology Solves Human Mysteries -Dr. JoAnna Watson
Discover how science uncovers stories hidden in the bones.
- The Arts as Hammer and Mirror: Reflection and Transformation in Culture -Sydney and John Chalfa
Examine how art shapes and reflects society across time.
- Color ABC - Yvonne Gabriel

Explore the expressive power of color through an engaging alphabet journey.

- Tristan und Isolde – Mary Keating, Ed.L.D.

Dive into the drama and beauty of Wagner’s legendary opera.

As we step into our 15th year, WALL stays committed to offering the beloved classes that have shaped our community—while also embracing the future with fresh ideas and distinctive new courses. Your suggestions continue to spark the creativity that brings the innovative, the timely, and occasionally the delightfully unexpected to our Academy.

May will be here before we know it, bringing with it our annual WALL meeting. During this gathering, we will elect officers for the 2025–2026 year and honor WALL’s 15th anniversary—a milestone made possible by you. We deeply appreciate the dedication of our members, volunteers, instructors, Wesleyan, our exceptional WALL Coordinator, and the broader community whose support has carried us to this moment.

If you are interested in serving on a committee, sharing ideas for future classes, or getting more involved, please reach out to me at stharpe69@gmail.com.

Thank you for being part of the WALL community and for continuing this journey of learning with us.

See you in class,

Sandy Tharpe
