Spread the News About the Academy

Dear Friends of WALL:

Last year we had a special class that I found really interesting. The topic was historic monuments in China: the Great Wall, the Terra Cotta Army, and the Forbidden City. The teacher, a Chinese professor, had a difficult time getting here, and the class had to be rescheduled a couple of times, but when it happened it was superb.

I got to thinking about the Great Wall. Its intended purpose was to keep people out.

We call ourselves WALL. What is our purpose? It's the opposite of the Great Wall: we want to bring people in. Bring them in so they can discover things. Maybe we shouldn't be WALL, but WINDOW. (WALL is a great acronym, and WINDOW is not, so we'll keep WALL, but think about the greater meaning.)

You can help WALL be a WINDOW for more people by inviting them in. Don't keep WALL a secret.

You can also help make the WINDOW larger by suggesting interesting teachers. Can you teach a great class about something? You probably can, so why don't you volunteer? Do you know a great teacher who has insight into an interesting topic? Talk to that teacher and get them to volunteer.

Let's make 2018 the YEAR OF THE WINDOW!

See you in class,
Richard Davies

From conversation to observation. Members learned the basics in this class on astronomical observation.
