SUMMER ORIENTATION FAQs

What is Summer Orientation?

Summer Orientation helps deposited first-year students prepare for their transition to life at Wesleyan College. In addition to meeting with an academic advisor, students will learn about campus resources, hear from current Wesleyan students and staff, and get to know their new classmates! Please understand that Summer Orientation is only applicable to first-year college students, not transfer or exchange students.

What do I need to do prior to Summer Orientation?

Make sure you have turned in (if you haven't already) your housing application, immunization records, deposit payments, and financial aid paperwork. If you're just finishing up that paperwork, we will happily take it during Summer Orientation. If you have questions about any of these documents, a representative from these various offices will be available to help walk you through the process. For a detailed list of what to complete before arriving, please visit the Wesleyan College Accepted Students page on the Wesleyan website.

Do I have to attend both the June 21st and July 26th sessions?
