HISTORY OF WESLEYAN COLLEGE

At Wesleyan, First for Women isn’t just a catchphrase. It’s a way of life. Founded as the Georgia Female College on December 23, 1836, Wesleyan is the first college in the world chartered to grant degrees to women. The College was founded through the efforts of a group of Macon citizens and the Georgia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, as evidence of their concern for the education of women. Classes began January 7, 1839 with 90 women; our first baccalaureate degree was awarded on July 16, 1840.

In 1843, the Georgia Conference of the Methodist Church assumed responsibility for the College and by an act of state legislature changed the name of Wesleyan Female College. In 1917, the “Female” was eliminated from the title, and the school assumed its present name of Wesleyan College. Today, the College continues its affiliation with the United Methodist Church and, in 1993,
Wesleyan was designated a historic landmark by the church.

In 1858, Wesleyan’s trustees adopted a resolution that the faculty should have a meeting with the alumnae at the next commencement. An organizational meeting of the alumnae took place on July 11, 1859, at Macon’s Mulberry Street Methodist Church, thus establishing the very first alumnae association of a degree-granting college.

Earlier in the decade, Wesleyan had become the birthplace of the first two Greek societies for women, the Adelphean Society in 1851 (now Alpha Delta Pi) and the Philomathean Society in 1852 (now Phi Mu). Today, instead of sororities, Wesleyan students share a bond of sisterhood developed in their classes, involvement in activities, living communities, and the shared values of the Wesleyan community.

In 1928, Wesleyan moved the liberal arts college from its original College Street site to the present Rivoli campus. The historic College Street building continued to house the School of Fine Arts, which consisted of the Conservatory of Music and the departments of art, theatre, and speech. In 1953, the School of Fine Arts was also moved to the Rivoli campus.

Wesleyan offers three undergraduate degrees: the Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Fine Arts, and the Bachelor of Science in Nursing. Majors and majors are available in more than thirty areas of study. The college also offers two graduate degrees: a Masters of Business Administration and a Masters of Education. A dual degree in engineering is offered in cooperation with the Georgia Institute of Technology, Auburn University, and Mercer University. Research and technology are integrated throughout the liberal arts curriculum. With ninety-five percent of faculty engaged in research in their fields, Wesleyan students often have opportunities to collaborate with their professors on these projects.

Wesleyan is committed to fulfilling its special mission as a women’s college in curriculum and in student life. But Wesleyan isn’t just a women’s college. It’s a community of learners and doers — women who have big plans for the future and refuse to limit themselves. Wesleyan has a long tradition of service to the community and many of our students are actively engaged in community service.

Wesleyan College is committed to equal education and full participation for all students. The Office of Disability and Advocacy Services (ODAS) is committed to supporting students with disabilities. The Director of ODAS oversees the implementation of disability related programs and services.

If a student with a disability wishes to receive an accommodation, it is the responsibility of the student to inform the Director of ODAS and request an accommodation by completing the Disability Services Request Form. The student must provide current documentation from a qualified licensed professional as soon as possible, and prior to when accommodations are desired. The documentation should include the specific diagnosis attributing to the disability, how the diagnosis was determined, and effects the disability will have on the student's collegiate life. Students may request a Wesleyan College Disability Services Verification Form on which a licensed professional can provide this information. The on campus counselor and nurse practitioner are not authorized to provide disability documentation through the scope of their work as compensated by the College.

If the submitted documentation meets the requirements, the Director of ODAS will approve reasonable accommodations and notify the student of this approval. If the documentation does not meet the requirements, the Director of ODAS will inform the student that additional information or contact with the medical professional is required.

Once approval of the accommodation request has been obtained from the Director of ODAS, the student and faculty member will be emailed an Accommodation Contract via Adobe signature. Once accommodations are sent to professors and student for the semester, the student will communicate with the appropriate staff or faculty member to determine how accommodations will be administered. Once the Contract has been signed by both parties, it will be in effect.

Accommodations that decrease the integrity of a course or program or cause an undue burden will not be approved. Accommodations will not be granted retroactively. Accommodations will be determined on an individual basis according to specific student needs. To continue to be considered for academic accommodations, a student must request services each semester. Other accommodation requests must be made annually.

All decisions regarding a request for reasonable accommodations will be communicated to the student in writing. If the request for an accommodation is denied, the student has the right to appeal that decision. A student who feels as though they have been denied a reasonable accommodation or is dissatisfied with the determination that they are not eligible as an otherwise qualified individual with a disability, may appeal in writing within five (5) working days of notification of the denial to the Dean of Equity and Inclusion who will serve as the Chair of the ADA Appeals committee.

Senior Graduation Audit
During her senior year, every degree-seeking student must schedule a graduation audit meeting with the Assistant Registrar of the College to review remaining degree requirements. Students may not register for the last semester of the senior year without having a graduation audit meeting. This meeting will ensure that the student, advisor, and Registrar are aware of all remaining degree requirements and that there are no unfortunate last-minute surprises before graduation.

The Department of Residence Life at Wesleyan College has established a co-curricular environment that complements the academic program. Living on campus provides students with valuable learning opportunities outside of the classroom. Wesleyan is committed to making the time students reside on campus a significant part of their overall educational experience.

Wesleyan College is a residential campus, which means all full-time undergraduate day students are required to live on campus during their enrollment (see Residency Policy for exceptions). A variety of student-housing options are available in our residence hall and apartment facilities that prove to be comfortable and accommodating. There are four traditional residence hall communities with suite-style bathrooms. In the residence halls, most rooms are equipped for double occupancy, but a limited number of private room options are available. Our apartment communities offer private rooms and private baths in an apartment style setting.

The Residence Life staff is composed of various staff members available to meet student needs. A Resident Advisor (RA) resides on each floor in the traditional residence halls and in each apartment building. RAs are undergraduate Wesleyan College students who are trained to meet the various needs of students. Full-time professional staff members are also available to students. Please refer to the Residence Life Policies section for residential services and policies.

ACADEMIC PROBATION
At the end of the semester a student is automatically placed on probation for the next semester if her cumulative grade point average is below a 2.00. When a student is placed on academic probation, the provost of the college gives notice of the fact to the student. The primary responsibility of a student on probation is improvement of academic work. The student is expected to take advantage of the following support systems: advisor, Writing Center, and Academic Resource Center. A student will be removed from probation when she attains a cumulative grade point average of a 2.00 or higher.

It is the mission of Student Affairs to support the academic endeavors of every student on campus and to support the academic mission of Wesleyan College. Students on academic probation should focus on their school work first before any other obligation. Students on probation are not permitted to hold an officer position on any campus board or organization, participate in STUNT nor permitted to serve as a representative of the college.

AGGRESSIVE BEHAVIOR
Aggressive behavior including verbal, written, and physical threats or altercations are expressly prohibited on campus or at college sponsored off-campus events. Students should not engage in acts of aggressive behavior, and sanctions for violation of this policy may include, but are not limited to, change in residence hall rooms, change in residence halls, removal from campus housing or suspension or expulsion from Wesleyan College with no refund of fees and full payment required.

ALCOHOL POLICY
Wesleyan College seeks to ensure that any alcohol consumption that occurs on campus or at college-sponsored events is undertaken in an atmosphere that promotes social and legal responsibility following all federal, state and local laws. The goal of this policy and all Wesleyan policies is to insure that our students are provided with the tools and guidelines needed to become sound decision makers, responsible citizens, and key contributors to Wesleyan College and beyond. Because of the devastating effects of alcohol and drug abuse on the individual student including assault behaviors, alcohol poisoning, vulnerability to sexual assault, academic failure, injury, and even death, Wesleyan College is very serious about enforcement of its alcohol policy.

Students who choose to use alcohol are responsible for their own behavior and any use of alcohol that is associated with behavior that is disruptive to the community will be considered a more serious violation of the alcohol policy. Disruption includes requiring assistance from others due to excessive intoxication or behavior which is disruptive to the peace through noise or other nuisance behavior. Any behavior connected with the use of alcohol which compromises the safety of self or others through violence, harassment or the use of a vehicle under the influence will be seen as the most serious alcohol policy violation.

A student found in violation of the Alcohol Policy will be subject to disciplinary action. On the first offense, sanctions may include, but are not limited to a fine, educational sanction, and referral to counseling. Any egregious or repeated offenses may be referred directly to Honor Council or the Dean of Students and subject to disciplinary actions and penalties up to and including expulsion from the college and referral to the appropriate federal, state or local authorities for prosecution.

For information on the short-term and long-term health risks of alcohol use visit the CDC Website for Public Health. For treatment options see Appendix D: Drug and Alcohol Counseling, Treatment and Rehabilitation Resources.

GENERAL PROVISIONS
- Consistent with Georgia law, only those Wesleyan students and their guests who are 21 years of age or older are permitted to consume alcohol on the Wesleyan campus or at Wesleyan sponsored events.
- Any person purchasing, possessing or consuming alcohol on Wesleyan’s campus and at college-sponsored events at which alcohol consumption is permitted must comply with applicable Georgia laws and Wesleyan College policies.
- Furnishing alcoholic beverages to persons who are underage or intoxicated is prohibited.
- Students must uphold the Honor Code at all times and are responsible for guests and guest behavior at all times.
- Disorderly conduct, reckless behavior, or any other disruption or disturbance to campus life due to intoxication is a violation of the College policy.

- Students may not drink alcoholic beverages in any area of the campus except in designated areas and during approved college-sponsored events.
- Those who choose to consume alcohol must use it in a responsible manner that will not interfere with the rights of others or be detrimental to themselves, those around them, or Wesleyan as a whole.

ON/OFF CAMPUS EVENT POLICIES

- In order for alcohol consumption at an event, either on or off campus, to be officially sanctioned by the College, an event registration form must be completed by the president of the organization desiring to have alcohol and submitted to the Director of the Center for Leadership and Involvement no later than two months prior to the date of the scheduled event for approval. Requests will be reviewed within one week of submission.
- Alcoholic beverages may only be served to students of legal age.
- Nonalcoholic beverages and food must be served at all events at which alcohol consumption is permitted.

ALCOHOL STORAGE, POSSESSION AND CONSUMPTION IN WESLEYAN COLLEGE RESIDENCE HALLS

The possession and consumption of alcohol in the Wesleyan College Residence Halls is permitted only per policy described in Chapter Four: Residence Life Policies and Procedures.

See complete Alcohol on Campus Policy on WesPortal.

BICYCLES

Bicycle owners must store their bicycles at approved bicycle racks only and are encouraged to use a lock at all times. Bikes may not be stored in the stairwells, hallways, offices, or lounges, as this is a fire hazard. Additionally, bikes may not be chained to light poles, buildings, or porch railings. Any bikes found not appropriately chained to a bike rack will be removed. Bicycle owners may leave their bike chained to a bicycle rack during the fall, winter and spring breaks. However, bicycle owners who are not enrolled/working for the college during the summer break must remove their bicycle from campus at the conclusion of the spring semester. Bikes remaining on campus at the conclusion of the spring semester (regardless of location) will be removed and donated.

BULLYING, INTIMIDATION, HARASSMENT AND THREATS

_Bullying_ includes any intentional electronic, written, verbal, or physical act or a series of acts directed at another student or students that is severe or considered severe by the victim or others in authority, persistent, or pervasive and that has the intended effect of doing any of the following:

- substantially interfering with a student’s education;
- creating a threatening environment; or
- substantially disrupting the orderly operation of the College.

_Intimidation_ is any verbal, written, or electronic threat of violence or other threatening behavior directed toward another person or group that reasonably leads the person(s) in the group to fear for her/his physical well-being.

_Harassment_ is unwelcome verbal or physical conduct that, because of its severity and/or persistence, interferes significantly with an individual’s work or education, or adversely affects an individual’s physical, emotional, or psychological well-being. (For the definition of and procedures related to discrimination and sex/gender-based misconduct see the Wesleyan College Sexual Misconduct Policy and Wesleyan College Process for Resolving Complaints of Sexual Misconduct.

_Threats_ include harming, abusing, assaulting, threatening, endangering, intimidating, stalking, or harassing another person and extends to all oral or written statements, communications, conduct, gestures, expressions, or acts made in any medium (e.g., in person, via letter, telephone, text message, electronic mail, social media or any other method) that causes a reasonable apprehension of physical or emotional harm to another person.

Bullying, intimidation, harassment and threats are prohibited, and participating in such acts will result in disciplinary action. Any student involved in these activities will be in violation of the Honor Code and may be at risk for suspension or expulsion from the College. Any student who feels they have been subjected to bullying, intimidation or harassment by another member of our community (or believes someone else has been the subject of an offense) should report the behavior to the Dean of Students.

Reports of violations of this policy will be adjudicated by the Dean of Students.

Anyone who attempts to use bullying, intimidation, harassment or threats to retaliate against someone who reports an incident, brings a complaint, or participates in an investigation in an attempt to influence the judicial process will be in violation of the Non-Retaliation Policy as posted on WesPortal and will be subject to disciplinary action.
CAMPUS ACCESS
The main entrance and exit on Forsyth Road is open 24 hours a day. The two road gates on Tucker Road and the two remaining road entrances on Forsyth Road are locked and secured at designated times. Campus Police is responsible for the operation of all gates and will publish the schedule at the beginning of each semester.

CHALKING POLICY
Given the historic nature of the college and its facilities, chalking is not permitted in any location other than around the residential quad area by the fountain. The Student Affairs Staff is happy to work with students, college clubs, and organizations to identify ways to publicize events and make announcements.

COMPLAINT PROCESS
Wesleyan College and its employees make every effort to serve students courteously and efficiently, including acting in accordance with College policies and state and federal laws. Wesleyan strives to continuously improve our student services and welcomes input regarding our policies and procedures. Individuals wishing to resolve a concern about a campus policy or the conduct of a College employee can bring a complaint, a written notice of concern to the attention of the appropriate faculty, staff, or administrator at any time.

Before filing a formal student complaint, students are encouraged to attempt to resolve the issue with the faculty or staff member of the area or department involved. The College addresses all written student complaints in a fair, professional, and timely manner and in accordance with established procedures. Wesleyan College makes every effort to resolve student complaints internally, using policies and procedures outlined in the current Catalog and Student Handbook.

For details and outline of filing a complaint, see the Student Complaint Policy posted on WesPortal -> Wesnet -> Policies.

Students may find the General Academic Complaint Form and General Complaint Form posted on WesPortal -> Student Tab -> Important Documents.

CONDUCT TOWARD COLLEGE OFFICIALS
Students must be respectful to College faculty, staff, and other officials at all times. Abusive language or intimidating behavior of any kind will not be tolerated. Students may be subject to, but not limited to, a sanction that may include removal from the College or residence halls with no refund of fees and full payment of tuition, room and board required. Students who feel that they have been treated inappropriately by a faculty member may report such incidents according to the Complaint Process described above.

CONVOCATIONS
The Wesleyan Convocation Series contributes to a strong academic atmosphere for students, faculty, and staff by bringing to the campus outstanding scholars and performers in varied areas and providing opportunities for meaningful community service. In addition to providing enrichment beyond classroom experiences, the Convocations also serve the purpose of providing a time for the entire campus community to meet together. The Convocation Series will support the mission of the college.

For information on convocation criteria, procedures, or requirements, see the College Catalog.

DAMAGE AND DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY
The college reserves the right to bill any currently or previously enrolled student for damage or destruction of college property. The student will be billed for the actual cost of repair or replacement and labor. Any student who takes part in or has knowledge of damage or destruction of college property should self-report to the Dean of Students who, depending on the value of the item/area in question, may refer the student to Honor Council for adjudication.

DRUG POLICY
The illegal use or possession of any stimulant, depressant, narcotic, hallucinogen, illegal substances or similar agents or prescription drugs not prescribed specifically to that individual is strictly prohibited on the Wesleyan College campus or as part of any college sponsored activity. The production, selling, bartering, exchanging, or giving away of any drug is also prohibited. State, federal, and laws also govern the use of drugs. When off campus, students are responsible at all times for complying with state, federal and local laws governing possession and use of drugs. Suspicion of drug use including the smell or evidence of use will be considered a violation of the drug policy. This includes smells permeating through residence halls and community areas or on an individual.

The College has a no tolerance policy regarding the possession and use of illicit drugs or prescription drugs not prescribed for that student’s use. A student found in violation of the Drug Policy will be subject to serious disciplinary action. On the first offense, sanctions may include, but are not limited to, a fine, educational sanction, and referral to counseling. Any egregious or repeated
Many misused drugs can alter a person’s thinking and judgment, leading to health risks, including addiction, drugged driving, infectious disease and adverse effects on pregnancy (NIH, 2019). Information on commonly used drugs with the potential for misuse or addiction can be found on the NIH website. For treatment options see Appendix D: Drug and Alcohol Counseling, Treatment and Rehabilitation Resources.

Individuals with criminal drug convictions may be subject to limited eligibility, penalties or disqualification for federal student aid. For more information visit https://studentaid.gov/understand-aid/eligibility/requirements/criminal-convictions.

E-MAIL
Email is the official mode of College communication. Students are expected to check their official @wesleyancollege.edu email account daily for important messages. Students must take responsibility for all electronic communication distributed via email. Failure to check an @wesleyancollege.edu email account or failure to read an electronic message distributed via email are not tolerated as excuses for missed information. All Wesleyan students are required to be a member of the “WesStudents” electronic distribution group administered via campus email. Students may elect to join additional groups as they desire (i.e. StudentNews, Internships, etc.) but they may not be removed from “WesStudents”.

Moderation of WesStudents Group
- Acceptable messages to be sent over WesStudents include official College business like convocations, important dates and events, campus safety information, and information that is relevant and important for all students to receive.
- Unacceptable messages to be sent over WesStudents include emails not related directly to campus events or activities, personal postings to include but not limited to personal messages, political views, sale of items, lost items, congratulatory email chains, etc. The Wesleyan College Bulletin Board Facebook group should be used for lost items, sale items, ridesharing, etc.
- Each message will be monitored to ensure it meets the requirements. If a message does not meet the requirements, the message will not be released and the sender will be notified. This group and approval for messages is not monitored continuously and only monitored during normal business hours Monday-Friday from 8:30am – 5:00pm.
- Messages that do not concern all students should be sent to targeted groups, such as residential students, graduating seniors, international students, etc.
- No more than two e-mails regarding a single event may be sent, and messages regarding a single event may only be sent once per day.

Moderation of StudentNews Group
- Acceptable messages to be sent over StudentNews include notifications of campus activities, programs and events, and important information for the good of the community.
- Unacceptable messages to be sent over StudentNews include e-mails that do not related directly to campus events or activities, personal postings to include but not limited to personal messages, political views, sale of items, lost items, congratulatory email chains, etc. The Wesleyan College Bulletin Board Facebook group should be used for lost items, sale items, ridesharing, etc.
- Messages that do not concern all students should be sent to targeted groups, such as residential students, graduating seniors, international students, etc.
- No more than two e-mails regarding a single event may be sent, and messages regarding a single event may only be sent once per day.

If you are sending an event flyer/image in your email, you must also include the text from the image within the body of the message as students with visual accommodations cannot access the content.

EMERGENCY PROCEDURES
During an emergency, immediate and appropriate action is required of every member of the Wesleyan Community in order to prevent harm to others and ourselves. To ensure that an effective response occurs, everyone on campus will need to be familiar with the emergency procedures as posted on the Wesleyan College website.

Being familiar with these procedures before an emergency occurs will greatly enhance your safety during a crisis by ensuring your appropriate and rapid response. Such an automatic response by the Wesleyan Community will allow emergency personnel to respond directly to the crisis at hand, possibly resolving it more quickly and effectively than would otherwise be possible.

To make our campus a more secure location it is recommended that you keep your Wesleyan ID with you at all times. It is highly recommended that ALL members of the Wesleyan community sign up for the Wesleyan Alert system.
If a student is immobile and in a wheelchair on a floor that is inaccessible to path of exit and cannot use elevator due to fire alarm, the student must locate themselves in the stairwell area. The stairwell area will become the area of rescue assistance for the student. The student should call campus police at 478-757-5145 or 911 to give exact location. Police or fire personnel will decide whether people are safe where they are, and will evacuate them as necessary. The Fire Department may determine it is safe to override the rule against using elevators.

FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT (FERPA)
See Records and Privacy Policy

FIREWORKS
Possession of fireworks and other dangerous materials on campus is strictly prohibited. Possession or use of fireworks on campus will result in a $100 fine up to removal from the College with no refund of fees and full payment of room and board required.

GRADE APPEAL PROCESS
See the College Catalog for the Grade Appeal Process.

HATE CRIMES
Wesleyan College is a hate crime-free campus. We, as a community, do not tolerate acts against another human being or our property.

A hate crime is considered an offense to a person or property, intimidating that person on the basis of race, color, national and ethnic origin, sexual orientation, age, religion, creed, disability, marital status, pregnancy, status with regard to public assistance, veteran status, citizenship status, sex, genetic information, gender identity, gender expression or other status protected by state or federal law.

Hate crimes can occur in, but are not limited to, any of the following ways:
- Intimidating or threatening behavior putting a person in fear of imminent physical harm (assault, threats to commit certain harm); or
- A physical attack (assault and battery, as well as other violent crimes such as murder, manslaughter, and rape); or
- Damage to property (arson, vandalism)

Should any member of our campus community experience any such action against themselves or others they should report the situation immediately to Campus Police or to the Dean of Students. Students found responsible for a hate crime will be immediately suspended or expelled from the college with no refund of fees.

HAZING POLICY
Hazing in any form, with respect to any college activity, is prohibited. Hazing means to subject a student to any activity which endangers or is likely to endanger the physical, mental or emotional health of the student or to produce mental or physical discomfort, fear or stressful situations, embarrassment, harassment, or ridicule, regardless of a student’s willingness to participate in such activity. Hazing may include, but is not limited to the following, whether conducted on or off campus:
- the use of alcohol;
- paddling in any form;
- creation of excessive fatigue;
- physical or psychological shocks;
- quests;
- treasure hunts, scavenger hunts, road trips;
- wearing of apparel in public which is conspicuous and/or not normally in good taste;
- wearing full facial masks or completely covering the face with paint;
- pouring food or any substance on a student;
- spraying water on a student;
- tattooing or piercing the body;
- placing food or other items in students mouths and/or causing students to swallow or gag;
- engaging in public stunts and buffoonery;
- morally degrading or humiliating games and activities;
- any other similar or related activities which are not consistent with the policies and regulations of Wesleyan College.
Any student who engages in hazing will be reported to the proper authorities for criminal prosecution under Official Code of Georgia § 16-5-61, the violation of which shall be punished as a misdemeanor of a high and aggravated nature.

In addition, and notwithstanding any criminal prosecution, such student will be fined (minimum $100), suspended, or expelled from the College by the Dean of Students with an appeal to the Provost. Other restrictions are at the discretion of the Dean of Students.

HELPING HAND FUND
Student Affairs manages the Helping Hand Fund, which was established by small financial gifts to Wesleyan and assists students in emergency financial situations. The purpose of the fund is to serve as a no-interest bridge loan for students who find themselves in a short term financial bind. Loans are limited to $50 or less, for up to one-month maximum, and students may utilize the fund no more than one time per semester. To apply for a Helping Hand Fund loan, the student should visit Student Affairs. In the event that the fund is not repaid by the due date, a hold will be placed on the student’s account. In this case, the student may forfeit further borrowing privileges.

HOVER BOARD POLICY
Due to fire and campus safety concerns, Wesleyan College prohibits the use and/or storage of self-balancing scooters, more popularly known as hover boards. Hover boards include self-balancing scooters, battery-operated scooters, and hands-free segways.

ID CARDS AND BADGES
All Wesleyan College students are required to obtain and carry their ID card in order to take advantage of various campus services and for identification purposes. Your student ID, with its badge and barcode, is encoded with your student data. This data entitles you to enter your residence hall and other restricted-entry campus buildings, check out books from the library, access the dining hall, ride campus transportation, and cash a personal check in the Business Office.

It is imperative that you carry your Wesleyan ID Card with you at all times. The Wesleyan College ID card is non-transferable. Any student who uses another persons’ ID card or allows her ID card to be used by someone else is subject to disciplinary action. Found or damaged Wesleyan ID cards should be returned immediately to the Student Affairs Office in OSP or Campus Police. The cost for replacing a lost Wesleyan ID card is $10.00 and the cost of replacing a lost key badge is $5.00 and must be paid when the replacement card is issued. All lost or stolen ID cards must be promptly reported to the Office of Student Affairs. A student must comply when asked to produce a student ID card for identification purposes by a Campus Police Officer or College Administrator.

You may order a replacement ID card and/or key badge on Wesportal -> “Forms” tab -> Miscellaneous Forms -> Replace ID or Key Badge, whereupon, you will pay online and specify your preferred delivery for your replacement item(s).

INSURANCE
MEDICAL INSURANCE
Full-time students and all residential students are required to have verification of adequate health insurance or other health coverage for the calendar year, starting August 1, and remain insured for the entire academic year. The health insurance policy must include coverage for accidental injury and hospitalization in Macon, Georgia, as well as coverage of required vaccines, prescription drug coverage, and routine preventative care. For students with active health insurance policies, a waiver verifying adequate health insurance must be done annually before the designated due date. Students without existing health insurance may enroll in the college student health plan before the deadline. Students who do not obtain an approved waiver before the deadline will be automatically enrolled and have the nonrefundable health insurance annual premium charged to their college account.

The Wesleyan College student health insurance policy is provided through Gallagher. Full policy information and benefits can be found on Wesportal.

PROPERTY INSURANCE
The College is not an insurer of students’ personal property. Students are encouraged to determine whether their parents’ property insurance extends to students’ personal effects while at Wesleyan. If not sufficient, students should consider a personal property insurance policy. Damage sustained to personal property while living in the residence halls is not covered by the college.

LITTER POLICY
Wesleyan College prides itself on the beauty of our historic campus and grounds. Members of the Wesleyan community are strongly encouraged to dispose of any trash, waste or disposables into the appropriate trash receptacle. When applicable, recyclable materials should be disposed of into the appropriate recycling container. Students who fail to place trash into its appropriate receptacle will be fined $50 per offense. Repeated violations will be referred to Honor Council.
MEDICAL AMNESTY FOR ALCOHOL AND OTHER DRUG USE

Wesleyan College supports a safe and inclusive environment that promotes academic and student success. A Medical Amnesty Policy benefits our campus by encouraging students to make responsible decisions in seeking medical attention in serious or life-threatening situations that result from alcohol and/or other drug use or abuse in any situation where medical treatment is reasonably believed to be appropriate. The purpose of this policy is to encourage individuals to seek needed medical attention for students experiencing an alcohol or other drug related emergency and to diminish fear of judicial sanctions in such situations.

The College complies with the Drug Free Schools and Campus Regulations and prohibits the unlawful possession, use, or distribution of illicit drugs and alcohol. The Student Code of Conduct details additional College policies on alcohol and drug use.

In serious or life-threatening situations where alcohol poisoning or drug overdose including incapacitation is suspected or where other medical treatment is reasonably believed to be appropriate, it is important to get the student immediate medical attention by taking the following steps:

1. Call 911
2. Call Campus Police (478) 960-7969
3. Stay with the person until help arrives
4. Be prepared to give the emergency medical personnel as much information as possible including the amount and type of alcohol or substances consumed.

As long as the situation is actively reported and not discovered after the fact, any student involved in this incident will not face judicial proceedings and sanctions*. Those parties involved with an alcohol and/or other drug situation will be required to meet with a professional staff member in the Department of Residence Life within five business days of the incident. The staff member, after evaluating the situation, will determine appropriate education actions for the student per the College’s Alcohol and Other Drug policy. No judicial proceeding or sanction will be listed on the student(s)’ judicial records, unless the student(s) refuses to meet with the professional staff member or does not complete the educational sanction as determined.

Repeated use of this Medical Amnesty Policy may result in judicial proceedings and sanctions. Any decisions made by outside law enforcement in regards to the reported medical concern and possible violations of alcohol and illegal drug laws are separate from this institutional Medical Amnesty Policy.

*The Medical Amnesty policy does not apply to other prohibited behavior (including but not limited to: distribution of illegal substances; harassment; physical misconduct; sexual misconduct, discrimination, etc.)

MEDICAL TRANSPORT

The college will not transport a student to a medical facility for care. For emergencies, 911 should be called immediately. For a non-emergent need for medical care and transportation, students should contact the Director of Disability and Advocacy Services during regular business hours for assistance in securing transportation. The student will be responsible for the cost of transportation. If 911 is contacted and the student refuses to receive care or transport, college staff will not take responsibility for the well-being of the student and the student may be required to seek medical treatment off-campus and/or be transported by ambulance.

NON-SEXIST AND INCLUSIVE LANGUAGE

At Wesleyan College we encourage all members of our community to use non-sexist/inclusive language.

Wesleyan encourages all students, faculty, staff, administrators, and other campus constituents to honor all individuals’ preferred pronouns. While Wesleyan continues to laud the values of women’s education with words like “sisterhood” and “herstory”, we recognize that not all of our constituents identify with feminine pronouns. Therefore, all members of the community should be respectful of individuals’ pronoun and name preferences.

Purdue's OWL has more information on gendered pronouns and singular use of “they”. on the use of "they." Additional information can be found on the National Council of Teachers of English website.

NOTIFICATION OF PARENTS

In any serious matter involving the student’s welfare, the College reserves the right to notify the parents and guardians.

PAINTING POLICY

The College encourages creativity via painting crafts, gifts, signs, sisterhood activities, etc. It also acknowledges painting items may have the unintentional results of paint overspray on various surfaces. Therefore, painting items is prohibited in the stairwells, on walkways, hallways, lounges, roads, parking lots, patios, etc. Painting items is limited to natural grassy areas away from buildings.
When painting in these approved areas you are required to have cardboard or other material to catch the paint overspray and preserve the grass. Students should talk with a member of Physical Plant or Student Affairs to discuss approved areas for painting, prior to painting any object.

RECORDS AND PRIVACY POLICY - FERPA
FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT (FERPA)

Wesleyan College recognizes the privacy rights of students with regard to their education records in compliance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 as Amended (FERPA), commonly called the Buckley Amendment. As it states, after a student becomes 18 or attends a post-secondary educational institution, all rights of the parents are transferred to the student. All students in attendance at Wesleyan will be deemed emancipated and parents will not have the authority to inspect and review the education records of their daughters unless:

1. the student gives written consent to release information, or
2. the parents provide evidence that the student is a dependent as defines in Section 152 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

Under this policy, students will be notified of grades (online), academic warnings, probationary status, and dismissal. Transcripts and other information from student files will not be disclosed without the prior written consent of the student, except as described in the full FERPA Policy located on WesPortal.

RECYCLING

Wesleyan College is committed to supporting the waste reduction efforts and minimization of the college’s carbon footprint. As such, the college is guided by the principles of the College Sustainability Committee. Wesleyan College has put forth several efforts in recycling, waste management and responsible purchasing that guide the actions of the college community.

REMOVAL AND SUSPENSION FROM COLLEGE

Violation of college policies and procedures may result in discipline, which may include, but is not limited to, removal from residence halls, or suspension or expulsion from the College. For procedures related to student discipline and violations of College policies and the Honor Code, see Chapter Six of this handbook.

Students who have been suspended or expelled from the College may not return to campus or attend any on or off campus College sponsored events. Action is effective immediately upon the decision. Students who are removed must leave the campus within 48 hours (the Dean of Students can make exceptions). In case of student appeals, the action taken will be administered but can be reversed after the appeal has been heard. An individual found in violation of this policy will be escorted off campus by the Campus Police or removed from the College activity. In addition, the individual may be prosecuted for criminal trespass.

RETALIATION

Retaliation against an individual who makes a report of a policy violation or assists in providing information relevant to a policy violation is a serious violation. For details and the full policy see the Non-Retaliation Policy as posted on WesPortal.

SERVICE ANIMALS

In compliance with applicable law, Wesleyan College allows service animals in all areas where the general public is permitted when the animal is accompanied by the individual with a disability who indicates the service animal is trained to provide, and does provide, a specific service to them that is directly related to their disability. A service animal is defined as any dog* individually trained to do work or perform tasks for the benefit of an individual with a disability, including a physical, sensory, psychiatric, intellectual, or other mental disability and meets the definition of “service animal” under the Americans with Disability Act (ADA) regulations at 28 CFR 35.104. Service dogs are working animals, not pets. The work or tasks performed by a service animal must be directly related to the student’s disability.

A dog is not a service dog if its mere presence benefits the individual with a disability. Dogs whose sole function is to provide comfort or emotional support do not qualify as service animals under the ADA.

*Under particular circumstances set forth in the ADA regulations at 28 CFR 35.136 (i) a miniature horse may qualify as a service animal.

Students who wish to bring a service animal to campus are strongly encouraged to partner with Disability Services. Students residing on campus must complete the Service Animal Registration Form and Service Animal Contract.

Individuals outside of Disability Services will not ask about the nature or extent of a person’s disability, require medical documentation require a special identification card or training document for the dog or ask that the dog demonstrate its ability to perform the work or task. Individuals may make two inquiries to determine whether an animal qualifies as a service animal when it is readily apparent that an animal is trained to do work or perform a task for an individual with a disability including:

- If the animal is required because of a disability
- What work or task the animal has been trained to perform.

For the complete detailed policy on Service and Emotional Support Animals, please visit WesPortal.

SHOPPING CART POLICY
Shopping carts (of any kind) are not permitted to be left on campus for any amount of time. Removing such carts from a shopping area is a crime. Violations of this policy will result in a $25 fine on the first offense. Subsequent offenses will result in additional fines and referral to Honor Council.

SEXUAL MISCONDUCT AND SEXUAL EXPLOITATION

Sexual Misconduct
All reports of Sexual Misconduct prohibited under Title IX that occur on College premises and at College educational programs and activities will be handled through the Wesleyan College Process for Resolving Complaints of Sexual Misconduct. Any forms of sexual or gender-based discrimination and harassment concerning students, including sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking that occurs off campus and not within the College’s education program or activity that would not be handled through the Title IX process, will be administratively managed by the Office of the Dean of Students through the student conduct process. Forms of sexual misconduct not covered under Title IX will be managed by the Office of the Dean of Students to include, but not limited to, sexual exploitation.

Sexual Exploitation
Sexual exploitation is an act or acts committed through non-consensual abuse or exploitation of another person’s sexuality for the purpose of sexual gratification, financial gain, personal benefit or advantage, or any other non-legitimate purpose. The act or acts of sexual exploitation are prohibited even though the behavior does not constitute one of the other sexual misconduct offenses and will be addressed as a student conduct issue pertaining to a Wesleyan College student or the offense will be addressed according to the Faculty or Staff Handbook if the alleged perpetrator is a Wesleyan College employee of any association (third party, contract, volunteer…).

Examples of sexual exploitation include, but are not limited to:
- observing another individual’s nudity or sexual activity or allowing another to observe consensual sexual activity without the knowledge and consent of all parties involved;
- non-consensual streaming of images, photography, video, or audio recording of sexual activity or nudity, or distribution of such without the knowledge and consent of all parties involved;

- inducing incapacitation for the purpose of making another person vulnerable to non-consensual sexual activity.

SOCIAL MEDIA
The Internet is a powerful means of communication and is often used for developing and strengthening peer connections and expressing individual identities through online communities (Instagram, Snapchat, Facebook, etc.). While the College does not officially monitor social media websites, College officials may unintentionally encounter information reflecting inappropriate conduct by a member of the Wesleyan College community or inappropriate conduct captured on a social media website may be brought to the attention of College officials. Inappropriate conduct over the internet will be addressed through existing response mechanisms at the College, including, but not limited to, the Student Handbook, Computer Information Resources Policy and Social Media Policy.

GENERAL POLICY AND PROCEDURES

AIR CONDITIONING AND HEATING POLICY
The policy aims to reduce overall energy consumption and help preserve the environment and is endorsed by the Sustainability Committee.

Students residing in the residence halls have a set point to cool the space to 72 degrees. In a season requiring heat, your set point will be 70 degrees. This policy applies to classrooms and all other college spaces.

In the event students experience concerns with the operation of the heating and cooling unit servicing your room, they should place a work order with Physical Plant (Appendix D).

Tampering with the cooling/heating unit is prohibited. If a student is found to have tampered with the equipment or created conditions to manipulate the heating or cooling, they will be subject to a fine for unit replacement and may be sent to Honor Council for further action.

ALCOHOL POLICY – STORAGE, POSSESSION AND CONSUMPTION IN THE RESIDENCE HALLS
For the complete Student Code of Conduct Alcohol Policy, see Chapter 3 - Alcohol Policy.

ALCOHOL STORAGE, POSSESSION AND CONSUMPTION IN WESLEYAN COLLEGE RESIDENCE HALLS
The possession and consumption of alcohol in the Wesleyan College Residence Halls is permitted only as set forth below:

- Designated Areas:
  - Students who are 21 years of age or older may store, possess and/or consume alcohol in their residence hall room or apartment accordingly:
    - Alcohol may not be stored, possessed or consumed in any room or apartment in which one or more of the room-mates or apartment-mates are under 21 years of age.
    - Alcohol consumption is prohibited within the residence hall and apartment public lounges or on the porches.
    - Guests, including other students, over the age of 21 are permitted to drink inside the common areas of the apartments or within personal rooms after all other apartment-mates or room-mates have agreed to permit alcohol consumption in the space. This agreement will be stated in writing, signed by each resident, and submitted to the Department of Residence Life. This agreement may be revoked at any time by the parties to the agreement and may be overridden by the College Officials at any time. Should a conflict occur, the apartment residents will be required to participate in a mediation process with a staff member in the Department of Residence Life.
    - Residents are permitted to have no more than 3 guests per resident within a given room or apartment when alcohol is being consumed.
    - Residents under the age of 21 may not have guests of legal age with alcoholic beverages in their residence hall room or apartment.
    - Students are prohibited from drinking alcohol in a designated area in the presence of any person under the age of 21.
    - Each resident is permitted to possess no more than 72 oz in a designated area. Kegs are prohibited in the residential facilities.
    - The College reserves the right to search any designated area (including personal living areas) at any time to ensure resident safety and compliance with the alcohol policy and other college policies.
    - Alcohol containers are not permitted to be used for display purposes.
    - The Administration has the sole discretion to revoke or modify such designations.

See complete Alcohol on Campus Policy on WesPortal.

APARTMENT ELIGIBILITY
The Corn Apartments were built with the specific goal of creating an independent living environment to help start our upper-class students in their transition to post-Wesleyan life. As such, priority for the apartments is given to senior students followed by junior students. Eligibility for the apartments is based on the number of earned credit hours. Meeting the credit hour minimum does not guarantee placement in the apartments.

The following credit hour guidelines will be used for apartment eligibility.
SPRING SEMESTER SIGN UP FOR FALL SEMESTER MOVE IN
Minimum of 40 hours earned at close of previous Fall Semester (i.e., Student Must have earned 40 credit hours by the close of Fall 2021 in order to sign up for the apartments during Room Selection Spring 2022. Student would Move in Fall 2022.)

BABYSITTING AND CHILDREN STAYING OVERNIGHT
Babysitting in the residence halls or apartments is strongly discouraged but allowed on a limited basis, provided it does not occur on a regular and continual basis and does not become a nuisance to other students in a floor or building. Children must vacate Wesleyan’s residential facilities in accordance with visitation hours. If babysitting causes a problem in any way, Residence Life staff can elect to end babysitting privileges. Children are not to be left unattended at any time. Children under 6 years of age are not allowed to spend the night in a residence hall room or apartment without permission. Children between the ages of 6–16 can stay on campus overnight only if they are an immediate relative of the Wesleyan Student occupying that room. Children visiting overnight must still follow all visitation policies.

BALCONIES, PORCHES, AND WINDOWS
Students are not allowed to hang articles from balconies, porches, windows or rails of the residence halls or apartment buildings. No inappropriate furniture or personal belongings are allowed in these areas. Students will be asked to remove belongings immediately. For personal safety reasons, students are prohibited from sitting on the ledges of porches, windows, balconies, or railings. For the protection and safety of all students, objects are not to be thrown over or off of balconies, windows, porches or rails. Students caught throwing objects off balconies, etc. are subject to removal from the residence halls with no refund of fees and full payment of room and board required. In order to respect the rights of others and to keep noise to a minimum, students should refrain from gathering in groups on balconies, etc. Smoking is not permitted on any balcony, building or room. Lounge furniture and room furniture is prohibited on the balconies and should not be removed from its respective area.

BED BUG PROTOCOL
The staff of the Wesleyan College Physical Plant and Residence Life are committed to an effective and efficient response to students who suspect they may have bed bugs. For the safety and comfort of all students living in the residence halls, our staff will adhere to the following guidelines:

- As soon as a student suspects that she may have bed bugs, she should contact Residence Life. If another administrator or office learns of a potential bed bug problem, their first call should be to Residence Life.
- Residence Life will notify Physical Plant as soon as possible so that the College’s exterminator can be dispatched to the location to perform an inspection of the bed(s) in the room. Please note that, should a student notify Residence Life on a weekend or holiday day, the Physical Plant staff will be contacted on the next work day. It is recommended that students contact Residence Life as early on a regular business day as possible. The exterminator cannot be dispatched on weekends or holidays.

  Students who report suspected bed bugs on a work day when the exterminator can be dispatched within 24 hours will not be granted an immediate temporary room change, nor will they be issued a new mattress. This is crucial so that we can prevent the spread of bed bugs if they are found to be in the student’s room and belongings. Residence Life staff will discuss short-term options with the individual student.

  If the exterminator is unable to respond to the student’s room to inspect within 24 hours, Residence Life staff may be able to provide a temporary location in which the student can sleep until the inspection can take place. This is based on the availability of space within the residence halls. Any student who is given a temporary relocation is required to wash and dry on the highest heat setting whatever clothing and linens she needs to take with her for the night. Upon doing that, the student should shower and put on clean clothes. The clean laundry is all the student can take with her to the temporary room. We want to ensure that if there are bed bugs in the student’s room, they do not travel to another room with the student.

  Students may not, at any time, deny the College’s exterminator or Physical Plant Staff access to their living space (including their bedroom, suite common space, kitchen, bathroom, etc.)

- Exterminator Findings
  - If the exterminator finds that there are no bed bugs present in the student’s room or suite, then no further action will be taken. The student will be asked to continue monitoring her living space and to notify Residence Life immediately if there are further problems.
  - If the exterminator concludes that bed bugs are present in the room or suite, Residence Life will provide the affected student(s) with a detailed list of instructions for the removal and laundering of their personal items. If a student wishes to dry clean, or have her items laundered by an outside vendor, she is responsible for those costs.
  - Only the College’s exterminator can confirm or deny the presence of bed bugs – not Health Services or any outside person.

Bed bugs are a serious community health issue, and all students are expected to comply with all instructions given to them within 24 hours once bed bugs have been confirmed within their living space. Failure to comply may result in fines and/or a referral to Honor Council.
If it is determined that bed bugs are present, the College will cover the cost of extermination for the first incident. A student, who experiences a subsequent, unrelated occurrence of bed bugs will be responsible for the cost of extermination.

CABLE
Basic cable television access is not provided in each residence hall and/or apartment room. Students may not add cable service to their personal rooms. Students will be able to utilize streaming services based on their own. The college will not pay for personal use of television streaming applications.

CAMPUS POLICE
The residence halls and apartments are monitored on a regular basis by Campus Police officers. Campus Police is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, to assist students with a variety of issues. Campus Police also offers an escort service for students needing to walk across campus during the evening and late night hours. Campus Police will make rounds in the residence halls to provide safety and security in our residential buildings. Campus Police can be reached at 478-960-7969.

CANDLES AND INCENSE
Candles and incense are prohibited in the residence halls and apartment buildings. These objects present extremely dangerous fire hazards and may also produce an odor that could disturb other residents. Candles warmers with an open heating element or open flames are not allowed. Any candles or incense found in the residence halls or apartments will be removed by residence hall staff, and the student will receive a $50 fine and go through the Judicial Process. Candles warmers with an open heating element or open flames are not allowed.

CLEANLINESS/HEALTH AND SAFETY INSPECTIONS
For health and safety reasons, residence halls and apartment rooms must be kept in a reasonable state of cleanliness at all times, and all trash must be disposed of in the proper receptacles. Residence Life staff will conduct periodic health and safety inspections at least once per semester. When possible, students will be given at least 24-hour notice prior to these inspections (via flyers or emails). However, unannounced inspections may occur if there is information concerning the violation of a Residence Life or College Policy. Students living in rooms not complying with health and safety standards will be given 24 hours to correct the problem, and if the problem has not been corrected, the student(s) will be fined $25 per day for non-compliance and will still be required to fix the issue. If a policy violation is in plain sight during a health and safety inspection, Residence Life Staff may confiscate any unauthorized item(s). Students who continue to violate policy will go through the Judicial Process. Continued violations of health and safety inspections may result in a student’s removal from the residence halls by the Director of Residence Life without refund of fees and full payment of room and board required.

CONDUCT TOWARD RESIDENCE LIFE STAFF
Students must be respectful of Residence Life Staff members. Abusive language or intimidating behavior of any kind will not be tolerated. Residence hall and apartment lounge furnishings are provided for the use and comfort of everyone living in the building. This furniture must remain in these areas at all times. If a student moves furniture out of these areas and into a residence hall room or other location, the student will be fined $50 per offense. Additional sanctions may be imposed if necessary. Students may use appropriate bed risers to raise their bed off of the floor however cinder blocks are not to be used to elevate beds or other furnishings provided by the College. Waterbeds are not permitted in the residence halls or apartments.
LOFTS AND BUNK-BEDS
Due to safety risks, lofts and bunk-beds are not permitted.

NAILS AND THUMBSTICKS
Students are permitted to use 1-1 ½ inch finishing nails (penny nails sized 2d, 3d and 4d) to hang posters and pictures on the walls. No more than 10 nails are permitted per wall. If nails are present in walls after check-out students may be charged additional fees for removal. Students are permitted to use thumbtacks in order to decorate their rooms.

SERVICE AND EMOTIONAL SUPPORT ANIMALS
Wesleyan College recognizes the importance of Service Animals as defined by the Americans with Disabilities Act As Amended (ADAAA). Those students recognized through the Office of Disability Services as having a Service Animal will enjoy equal access to housing facilities and Residence Life activities.

The College also recognizes the need for some students to have an Emotional Support Animal (ESA), defined by the Fair Housing Act as an animal that performs tasks and provides benefit to an individual with a disability. No animal may visit or reside in a Wesleyan College residence hall without prior, written approval from the Office of Disability Services. A violation of this policy will require immediate removal of the animal and a $250 fine. Failure to remove the animal within 24 hours or repeated violations will result in additional fines and possible judicial sanctions through Honor Council as well as ineligibility for future ESA approval. Additionally, students will be financially responsible for any damages or additional cleaning services required from the violation.

Wesleyan will not limit room assignments for Approved Animal owners. It is the responsibility of the owner to communicate with roommates and suitemates about allergies or other conflicts with the animal. The Office of Residence Life is committed to making assignment changes as needed for reasonable accommodations. Wesleyan will not require an individual with a disability to pay a fee or surcharge for the Approved Animal, but the owner will be financially responsible for any damage to College property caused by the animal.

Owners of Approved Animals are required to pick up all animal waste on College grounds caused by their animal. The first violation of this policy will result in a $50 fine; the second violation will result in a $100 fine; and any further violations may result in removal of the animal from campus. Any flea or other pest treatments will result in $450 fine. Carpet replacement will vary due to extent of damage.

For more information on Approved Animals, consult the Service Animal and Emotional Support Animal Policy and Agreement found on Wesportal.

SEVERE WEATHER
All students should be aware of and prepared for hazardous weather conditions including tropical storms, hurricanes, tornadoes, snow, sleet and ice. If severe weather conditions should occur, the Residence Life staff will call hall or floor meetings to advise students of further necessary actions (i.e. evacuation, consolidation to a safe place, etc.). Students are required to follow the instructions of the College staff in such cases. For more information on the Wesleyan College Emergency Management Plan see the Wesleyan College website.

EMERGENCY SIREN
If the state emergency siren sounds at any time other than the regularly scheduled monthly test, on the last Wednesday of the month at 11:00 a.m., students should immediately go to the interior hallways of the lowest floor of their residence hall or apartment building and wait for further instruction from a Residence Life staff member or other College official. Students should stay away from windows and exterior doors. Regularly scheduled drills may be conducted as deemed necessary. Failure to leave the building or gather in the appropriate designated area upon alarm sounding will result in a $100 fine.

TORNADO
Upon notification of a tornado warning:
All persons will proceed to a tornado safety location inside their buildings, assisting those that need assistance, and ensuring that those under their jurisdiction also go to the safety location. Whenever possible, employees will maintain an approximate head count of the persons from their areas. All building occupants are to remain in the safety location until the Tornado Warning has expired or until notified that the danger has passed.
A Tornado Safe Location is one that:

- Has no windows
- Is on the lowest possible floor of a building
- Has no exterior walls

If you hear an intermittent beep from a smoke alarm, it means the battery is low. Do not remove the battery or attempt to change the battery! Please submit a Physical Plant Work Order. Decorative items (i.e. banners, posters, etc.) are not permitted to be hung from or over smoke detectors or sprinklers.

SMOKING

Smoking is not permitted in the residence halls or on residence hall balconies and porches. For the complete policy, see the College Policies section.

SOLICITATION

Wesleyan College does not allow door-to-door solicitation of products or services in the residence halls or apartment buildings or electronic solicitation via email. If you should encounter a solicitor in the residence halls and apartments, notify campus police immediately.

STORAGE

Due to space limitations and regulations governing fire safety, the college does not offer permanent storage for students. If storage is made available during the summer months, it will be designated on a first come-first served available basis for those students who qualify. Priority is given to those students who live abroad and cannot travel home with their personal items. If able to utilize storage, student must comply with all policies and fees as outlined in the storage contract.

TELEVISIONS

There are televisions in common areas in each residence hall. Service problems with the television should be communicated to a Residence Life staff member. This amenity is provided with the understanding that all students will respect college property. Damaged or missing equipment will be charged to the student(s) involved.

VANDALISM AND COMMON DAMAGES

Destructive behavior of any kind is not tolerated in the residence halls or apartment buildings. Students will be held responsible for damages individually or in a group. Students who participate in acts of vandalism are subject to removal from campus housing with no refund of fees and full payment of room and board required. Additionally, students found responsible for vandalizing college property will be responsible for the repaying of damages. When vandalism or damage occurs on a floor or to any part of a residence hall or apartment building, Residence Life staff will make every effort to determine who is responsible. If the person(s) responsible is identified, the student(s) will be sanctioned according to the nature of the vandalism. In the event that the individual(s) responsible cannot be determined, the residents of the area will be notified of the vandalism or damage and will be given a specified period of time in which to report any information regarding the incident. If this fails to yield any information about the person(s) responsible for the vandalism or damage, a minimum fine or total cost of the repair or replacement value of the vandalism or damage will be split equally among the residents of the affected area.

VIOLATIONS

Students who violate any residence hall policy are bound by the Honor Code to report themselves to the Director of Residence Life. If a student does not self-report to the Director of Residence Life, any witness to the violation should report the offense to the appropriate person. The Director will adjudicate first offenses of Residence Life policy violations in most cases. Repeated or egregious offenses may go through the Judicial process.

WINDOWS

In an effort to be sensitive to the Wesleyan community, objects are not permitted to be hung from the inside of windows that are visible on the outside. Objects are not to be thrown from windows of the residence halls or apartments. Window screens are to be properly installed on each residential window and may not be removed unless there is an emergency. Missing window screens should be reported to Physical Plant Work Order.

GUIDELINES FOR ROOM USAGE AND ACCESS

ACCESS TO RESIDENCE HALLS AND APARTMENTS

In order to provide a safe and secure residential environment, all residence hall and apartment buildings are locked 24 hours a day. Students are issued keys by Residence Life staff at check-in and are required to return the keys to Residence Life staff upon checkout. Students are not permitted to use their key to enter a residence hall in which they do not reside and may not loan their key to anyone at any time. Residents who are found to have loaned their key or ID card to any person will automatically incur a $25 fine upon the first offense. Subsequent offenses will be referred to Honor Council. Each residence hall and apartment building has several designated entrances that can be opened only by the entrance badge of a student living in that particular building. Propping open doors compromises the safety of everyone in the residence hall and is considered a residence hall violation. A fine and/or additional sanction may be imposed depending on the circumstances of the situation. Continually propping open exterior residence hall or apartment doors can result in a student’s removal from campus housing by the Director of Residence Life with no refund of fees and full payment of room and board required. Pounding on residence hall or apartment building doors creates a distraction for students living in the hall and is not permitted.

ACCESS TO STUDENT ROOMS BY COLLEGE STAFF

College staff reserve the right to enter a student’s room at any time to make periodic inspections of residential facilities or when acting in an official capacity on behalf of the College. This applies regardless of whether or not a student is present at the time of entry. If staff should enter a room and notice in plain sight evidence of a violation of College policy, the staff may take that evidence and refer the incident to the appropriate judicial board. If an item is taken when a resident is not in the room, she will be promptly notified.

BREAK HOUSING (SEMESTER)

Each year the Wesleyan College residence halls and apartment buildings close for the Semester Break in December. These dates are published in the College Calendar and the Student Handbook.

We encourage students to make travel arrangements that coincide with the College breaks. However, we also understand that extenuating circumstances may arise requiring a student to stay late, return early, or remain on campus during a break period. If a student has special circumstances requiring that she stay late, return early, or remain on campus during a break period she should follow the Semester Break Housing procedure listed below.

- The student should contact the Director of Residence Life as soon as possible to discuss the special circumstances and request permission to stay late or return early however, requests must be submitted in writing at least three weeks prior to the beginning or ending date of a break date or by the designated deadline set during a break housing application process.
- The Director of Residence Life will review the request and notify the student if an exception has been granted.
- Students who need housing during the semester break will be charged a set fee to cover the cost of utilities which will be utilized during this period.

Students remaining on campus during a break period will be required to follow all college and residence hall policies and regulations during their stay. In addition, they will be required to sign an early arrival/late stay agreement outlining additional rules for the break period. No meal service will be provided during semester breaks.

For safety and security reasons, in addition to a decrease in staff coverage and minimizing the use of utilities during break periods, students may be consolidated to designated locations or may not be able to stay in their regular residence hall rooms or apartments.

CHECK-IN

Upon the beginning of each academic year, every student must check-in to her residence hall or apartment with a Residence Life Staff member. The check-in process requires completing the Residential Emergency Contact Form, signing the Handbook Acknowledgement form, receiving a room key and completing the Room/Apartment Condition Form. Each student will be provided instructions on how to complete the Apartment or Room Condition form for their assigned living space. This form must be completed within 48 hours of receiving keys and it is the responsibility of the student to make sure that the room/apartment condition form is thorough and lists all current damages in the room. For more information on the Room Condition Form please view the appropriate information in this section. Students must follow the same check-in procedure during the summer months, if applicable.
CHECKOUT
Before a student vacates her residence hall room or apartment, she must make an appointment with her RA to officially check-out of her room at least 24 hours prior to her desired departure. The RA will compare the room/apartment condition form filled out at the beginning of the year, to the condition of the room at checkout. Any differences or discrepancies will be noted on the room/apartment condition form and will be presented to the student to sign during check-out. In the event of a double occupancy room or shared common space in the apartments, the check-out condition of all roommates’ forms will be compared for any discrepancies or damages which were not visible at the time of the other roommate’s checkout. All changes will be reported the Director of Physical Plant who will review each case and determine if an actual damage has occurred. In the event of actual room damage the student will be billed at the cost to repair the damage. Damages are applied to student’s account approximately 6 to 8 weeks after the conclusion of the semester. Students are responsible for reviewing their account on the portal after this point and should contact the Director of Residence Life with any questions concerning room damages and fines.

Students must follow the same check-out procedure during the summer months. Failure to sign up for a check-out time, failure to attend a scheduled appointment, or failure to vacate the residence hall by the designated time will result in a minimum $25 fine being charged to the student’s account. Other fine information related to checkout is listed in the closedown procedures distributed to residents prior to hall closings. Under no circumstances may a student leave their keys in their room upon check out. This will be considered an automatic improper check out and students will forfeit their right to appeal any damages found in their room. Any items left in student rooms will be discarded and the resident(s) may be charged a minimum cleaning fee of $100.

Students who check out during the year due to withdrawal must check out by 5 P.M. on the day of scheduled check out. If the withdrawn student does not check out by the designated time, the student may be escorted off of the campus by Campus Police and may be denied visitation privileges in the future.

HALL CLOSINGS
Following final examinations at the end of each semester, a student is required to vacate her residence hall room or apartment within 24 hours of her last exam or at the designated hall closing time, whichever comes first. Any extenuating circumstances preventing a student from leaving at the designated time must be made according to the exception policy designated at the end of the semester. Additional fees will be charged for late stays. At the conclusion of spring semester, students participating in commencement exercises may remain in their campus residence with permission until 12 p.m. on the day after commencement. All other students must vacate their rooms within 24 hours of their last exam, or by 10 a.m. the day following the last day of exams. Any student who has not vacated her room by the time of hall closing will be fined a minimum of $50 per day she has not vacated.

NONTRADITIONAL HOUSING
Requests for housing for non-traditional students must be submitted to the Director of Residence Life and will be considered on a case-by-case basis. Non-traditional students living in campus housing must be Bachelors level registered for a minimum full time course load (12 hours) and must follow all policies and guidelines as set for forth in the student handbook. Efforts will be made to place nontraditional students in housing that is with and around other nontraditional students when possible. Nontraditional students desiring to live in the apartments must meet the eligibility requirements as set forth in the student handbook and should secure compatible apartment mates.

REMOVAL FROM CAMPUS HOUSING
Students can be removed from campus housing as deemed necessary by the Director of Residence Life or the Dean of Students. Examples include, but are not limited to, the following: multiple minor rule infractions, disrespect to staff, physical violence, vandalism, possession of illegal substance(s), and possession of weapons of any kind. Students who are removed must leave the campus within 48 hours (the Dean of Students can make exceptions). In case of student appeals, the action taken will be administered but can be reversed after the appeal has been heard. An individual found in violation of this policy will be escorted off campus by the Campus Police or removed from the College activity. In addition, the individual may be prosecuted for criminal trespass.

Students removed from college housing may be removed from the college due to the residency requirement.

RESIDENCE AGREEMENT
New and returning students will not be permitted to move into campus housing until they have been cleared by the Business Office, Financial Aid Office, Registrar’s Office, Honor Council, Student Affairs, and Health Services. Students should consult with each of these offices prior to move in to ensure a smooth check in process.

RESIDENCE HALL SPACE
Assignments guarantee space (not specific rooms) within the residence halls. The Department of Residence Life reserves the right to assign students to other spaces, rooms or halls, when to doing so appears to be in the best interest of the college, an individual or groups of students, or when it determines that a student is not actually residing in her assigned space. Residence contracts are for entire academic year.

RESIDENCY REQUIREMENT
Wesleyan College believes in the value of the College community and the importance of both the curricular and co-curricular life of students. Therefore, residence hall living is considered an important part of the total education process. All traditional undergraduate students are required to live on campus during their enrollment.

Requests to live off campus will be evaluated based on individual circumstance, and a waiver will be granted to students who meet at least one of the following criteria:
- Living with a parent or legal guardian within 30 miles driving distance of campus
- Fifth year seniors (8 full-time semesters – fall and spring – of Wesleyan College credit)
- Married students
- Parents who are primary caregivers of their child(ren)
- At least 22 years old at the time of matriculation to college

Students who do not meet one of more of these criteria but who have extenuating personal circumstances are encouraged to submit a Change of Resident Status form and a statement of their petition to be approved for a waiver.

All individuals requesting an exemption from the residency requirement must submit the appropriate paperwork to the Director of Residence Life by July 1 (Fall Semester) or December 1 (Spring Semester). Submission of a Change of Resident Status form does not guarantee approval to live off campus. If living off campus without permission, the student will be charged the full double occupancy room and board rate.
Students will receive written notification from the Director of Residence Life if a waiver is approved or denied. A student denied the waiver may appeal to the Dean of Students within 72 hours of first notification of denial. The decision of the Dean of Students is final.

Off-campus resident status may be renewed annually. Students will receive an e-mail request for confirmation of residential address by July 1 (Fall Semester) or December 1 (Spring Semester). If a student’s residential circumstances change, she must notify the Director of Residence Life immediately. Failure to provide current and accurate residential information may result in the student being charged the full double occupancy room and board rate.

ROOM ASSIGNMENTS/ROOM SELECTION
Returning students participate in a room selection process each year during the spring semester. Sign-up order is based on number of earned credit hours as of the previous semester. Students must be registered for classes for the semester in which they are selecting their housing. If a student does not receive her first choice for room selection, she may elect to be placed on a waiting list in the event that space becomes available in the future. Information regarding the room selection process is distributed to students via email during the spring semester. It is the responsibility of the student to attend her Room Assignment appointment. If she fails to attend her appointment time, an assignment will be made for her at the conclusion of the Room Selection process after all students have been assigned.

ROOM CHANGES AND CONSOLIDATION POLICY
Students are allowed to make room changes at the designated room-change period, which takes place at the beginning of each semester. Students desiring to move into a new room must follow procedures as directed by the Department of Residence Life. The student requesting a room change is the student who is expected to move. Any student making an improper room change or those who fail to comply with the stated room change deadlines will be fined a $25 improper checkout fee. If making an improper room change without appropriate permission, a student will have to return to the appropriate assigned room. Fees will not be pro-rated for room changes.

After the room-change period, all room-change requests will be considered on an individual basis and granted by the Department of Residence Life only after all other attempts to create a suitable living environment have been exhausted. After designated room-change periods, students without roommates are in the consolidation process and have the following options:
- Choose a roommate;
- Choose to remain in a private room and pay the private room fee of $550/semester;
- Choose to remain in the room and a roommate can be assigned at any time.

Typically, students will have 2-4 weeks from the start of classes to choose one of the first two options. After the conclusion of the room change process, the Director of Residence Life will inform all students of their status in the consolidation process and will begin to assign students to their new room or roommate. Students are encouraged to self-select a roommate from the other students going through the consolidation process and choose the room in which they will reside. When students do not self-select a roommate, they will be assigned one at random and the room assignment will be selected based on the student with the highest number of credit hours.

The Office of Residence Life reserves the right to make a room change at any time it is deemed to be in the best interest of the student(s) involved. If any room change is not completed by the specified date, the student is subject to a $25 per day fine for each day past the deadline. Room Change requests will not be honored during the last two weeks of a semester.

ROOM AND APARTMENT CONDITION FORMS
Prior to the arrival of each student, all rooms are inventoried for the current condition of all furniture, walls, flooring, ceiling, fixtures, door, appliances, etc. Resident Advisors document each of these conditions and complete the necessary work orders prior to the check in period. When a residential student arrives on campus and checks into their room for the first time, they are responsible for completing the online Apartment/Room Condition Inventory form which will be used to document the condition of a room at check in.

During the Check-in Process, each student will receive instructions on how to complete their Apartment/Room Condition report. It is the student’s responsibility to inspect their rooms or apartments immediately upon move in and to complete their online Apartment/Room Condition Inventory within 48 hours of receiving their keys. Failure to list a damaged item at check in does not alleviate a student from responsibility for that damage at check out and is not grounds for a housing damage charge appeal. It is the responsibility of the student to make sure that ALL conditions are listed on their Apartment/Room Condition Inventory.

During check out, the room will be inventoried and compared against its original move in condition. Any changes in condition will be reported to the Director of Residence Life and to Physical Plant in order to be assessed for damages. Physical Plant will determine the exact cost to be assessed to a damaged room and the cost will be passed along to the student. Damage fees and Residence Life fines are placed on student accounts approximately 4 weeks after the end of the spring semester and it is the responsibility of the student to check their account on the portal for any applied fines. For shared areas, the damages fines will be split evenly among all residents using that space unless a student(s) accepts responsibility in writing for that damage (including publicly shared areas such as lounges, laundry facilities, stairwells, etc. If a discrepancy should occur during the Check-out process, the initial inventory performed by the Resident Advisor will be consulted and compared with the initial inventory completed by the student at check-in.

ROOMS NOT IN USE
Students are prohibited from storing any belongings in an empty room in the residence halls or apartments. Empty rooms must remain clean and available for room changes and emergency housing situations. This includes rooms which are not for residential occupancy including lounges, study areas, storage closets, etc. Students found in violation of this policy will be fined $25 and will be required to remove belongings immediately. Additional sanctions may be imposed, if necessary.

SUMMER HOUSING
Summer housing is available to all current students registered for the fall semester at a determined cost. Housing may be made available to recent Wesleyan graduates in good standing with the college as space is available. Students living in campus housing during the summer months are required to adhere to all Residence Life policies and guidelines stated in the student handbook. Students failing to comply will be subject to sanctions imposed by residence hall staff. Space is limited and priority for housing will be determined by the Director of Residence Life.

SEARCHES AND ENTRY BY COLLEGE OFFICIALS
The College reserves the right for appropriate officials to search individual rooms, suites, apartments, buildings or any area when there is a reasonable suspicion that a policy violation or illegal activity is taking place. The College reserves the right to conduct a search as necessary whether or not a student is present in the room. If a search produces evidence of a policy violation or illegal activity, the resident(s) of the room will be referred to the appropriate College judicial board, administrative procedure, or law enforcement agency. College personnel may also enter a room to conduct routine, requested, or emergency maintenance procedures. Any item confiscated during a Residence Life or administrative search, which represents a violation of policy, will not be returned to the student.

SEARCHES AFTER A FIRE ALARM
It may be necessary to conduct a search immediately following the activation of a fire alarm. If illegal items are discovered during fire safety checks of the building, these illegal items will be confiscated and the appropriate action/fine will be assessed. Any item confiscated during a Residence Life or administrative search, which represents a violation of policy, will not be returned to the student.

VACANCIES
Vacancies in the residence halls and apartments that occur after the designated room selection time will be filled by the Director of Residence Life. Students on the waiting list will be considered for all vacancies before other students who are not on the waiting list. Housing assignments may be changed prior to move in to accommodate occupancy requirements. Mid-semester vacancies may require a student to go through the consolidation process. Students who do not comply with the consolidation process will be charged for a private room.

VISITATION POLICY AND PROCEDURES
Wesleyan College recognizes that visitation is an important privilege offered to the students. However, with this privilege comes responsibility. Visitors are defined as any non-residential student, faculty, or staff or any non-Wesleyan affiliated person who is requesting admittance in the residence halls or apartments to visit or gather with any Wesleyan College residential student. Visitation of guests, whether male or female, must not interfere with a roommate, suitemate, or apartment-mate’s right to privacy, study time, sleep, etc. Residents may not exercise their visitation privileges if doing so interferes with the rights of the roommate, suitemate, apartment-mates, or of any other resident. Students may have guests in their room or apartment only with approval from their roommate or apartment-mates according to the following guidelines.

CONDUCT
The resident with whom the guest is staying is responsible for the actions and conduct of her guest at all times. Guests and hosts alike are responsible for knowing and abiding by all regulations and policies.

ESCORT
A Wesleyan College student must escort her guest at all times. In addition, guests may not be left alone in a residence hall or apartment for any period of time. It is the responsibility of every Wesleyan student to inform unescorted guests that they must leave the building and notify their Resident Advisor and Campus Police of this behavior.

OPEN VISITATION HOURS
Wesleyan students are permitted to invite male and female guests to campus during open visitation hours. Open visitation hours are as follows:

Sunday – Thursday: 10am – 12 midnight
Friday and Saturday: 10am – 2am (the following morning)

During open visitation hours, a guest registration form is not necessary for guests who are visiting campus. However, Wesleyan students are highly encouraged to complete a guest registration form for any guest visiting campus in order to ensure a smooth visit. Even though guest registration forms are not required during open visitation hours, a student should minimally receive verbal permission from their roommates, suitemates or apartments for any guest entering the residence halls or apartments.

OVERNIGHT GUESTS
Wesleyan students are permitted to host an overnight guest on campus in their residence hall room or apartment as long as they have followed all overnight guest registration guidelines. An overnight guest is defined as any Non-Wesleyan Student on campus after open visitation hours.

Out of respect and for safety reasons, a resident must request and receive approval to host an overnight guest 24 hours in advance from her roommate, suitemate or apartment-mate. Approval of guests with less than 24 hour notice will be approved on a case by case basis with an extenuating circumstance only. After gaining approval, the resident must register the guest with a Residence Life staff member according to the guest registration procedure. Failure to gain approval or to register the guest will result in the guest being asked to leave and referral of the resident host for judicial action.

When visitation is permitted, each overnight guest may stay for a maximum of three consecutive nights and may not spend more than eight nights on campus per month without special permission from the Director of Residence Life. Guests are not permitted to stay with different Wesleyan hosts in order to extend their stay on campus past the guidelines set above. Students are permitted to have two overnight guests per evening. All other guest policies must be followed at all times for the duration of the guest’s stay. In extenuating circumstances regarding the number of visitors per evening or the number of days permitted, students must gain approval from the Director of Residence Life.

OVERNIGHT VISITATION – FEMALE
Female guests are permitted to visit Wesleyan residents 7 days a week. Any non-Wesleyan female guest must be registered as an overnight guest if they are staying past open visitation hours and must follow the overnight guest policy. Because female guests are permitted overnight seven days a week, there are no building specific visitation options. The College reserves the right to limit or discontinue female visitation privileges if deemed necessary.

OVERNIGHT VISITATION – MALE
Male visitation is defined as those times a resident may have male guests in her room, apartment, or in the public areas of the residential spaces. Specific visitation plans describe the maximum hours during which male guests may visit. Within these plans, all guidelines listed in the visitation policy must be followed and the desires and concerns of the roommate, suitemate, apartment-mate, or other residents are of most importance and govern what are acceptable and unacceptable visitation privileges. The College reserves the right to limit or discontinue male visitation privileges if deemed necessary. Male visitation options apply to individual residence halls and apartments accordingly:

PLAN A: WORTHAM HALL AND PERSONS HALL
Overnight male guests are not permitted in Wortham and Persons Halls. Male guests may visit Wesleyan students during open visitation hours as outlined above.

PLAN B: APARTMENTS, HIghTOWER HALL AND JONES HALL
Twenty-four hour visitation is permitted in accordance with guest registration policies. Any guest staying past open visitation hours must be registered.

OVERNIGHT VISITATION – MINOR
Children under 6 years of age are not allowed to spend the night in a residence hall room or apartment. Children between the ages of 6 – 16 can stay on campus overnight only if they are an immediate relative of the Wesleyan Student occupying that room. Children visiting overnight must still follow all visitation policies. Minors staying overnight must follow the guidelines set above as designated by gender.
OVERNIGHT GUEST REGISTRATION POLICY
In order to ensure the highest safety standards possible, the following overnight guest registration policy must be followed by all residents at all times. Male and female overnight guests remaining in the residence hall or apartments past 12:00 a.m. (midnight), Sundays through Thursdays and 2:00 a.m. on Fridays and Saturdays must be registered. During college holidays when classes are not in session (i.e., Labor Day, Fall Break, Thanksgiving, Spring Break, etc.), guests are permitted to stay overnight the evening before a holiday, even if it is not a weekend. This does not include the beginning of each semester prior to the start of classes or finals week.

In order to register a guest, a student must fill out a Guest Registration Form, which can be obtained from Portal under the Student Affairs section of the Wesnet tab. The Guest Registration Form includes Wesleyan host information, guest information, in addition to signatures from all roommates and suitemates or apartment-mates. Permission must be granted from a roommate, suitemates, and apartment-mates which are indicated by signatures on the registration form.

For identification purposes, a copy of the Guest Registration Form must be carried with the guest at all times while on campus. All guests must present their approved guest registration form to any Campus Police Officer, Wesleyan College Administrator or Residence Life Staff Member when requested to do so. Without a completed form, all guests will be escorted off campus.

GUEST HOUSING
Wesleyan College is pleased to offer guest housing options for students who wish to rent a room for their guests. Guest housing is available on a first come, first served basis and students are responsible for all fees associated with renting a room on campus. To reserve guest housing, students should contact the Director of Auxiliary Services. The Department of Residence Life does not offer guest housing.

ELIZABETH TURNER CORN HALL (TOWNHOUSE) AND JONES AUXILIARY SUITES
This facility is available to parents of current students, parents of prospective students, and guests of the college, and is reserved through advanced registration. Students wishing to reserve the townhouse or auxiliary suites must do so a minimum of one week in advance. Rental fees for these rooms can be received at the time of registration. Guest occupancy of the townhouse or auxiliary suites shall not exceed more than seven consecutive days by any one party without special permission from the Director of Auxiliary Services.

Wesleyan College assumes no responsibility for personal property that is lost or stolen. Visitors must observe all College rules while on campus. Guests must be escorted by the Wesleyan College host when inside host’s residence hall.

Anyone failing to comply with these guidelines will forfeit guest-housing privileges on campus and may be referred to Honor Council. Wesleyan students will be held responsible for the conduct of their guests and are responsible for any damage to college property caused by their guest.
CHAPTER FIVE- COMPUTER INFORMATION RESOURCES

CIR Staff and Support

Use of Computer and Information Resources Policy

Enforcement

CIR STAFF AND SUPPORT
When residential students first orient to the College, they are introduced to their Information Technology Assistant (ITA), who assists them in the initial setup of their computers. After that time all computer, network, or printing issues need to be entered into the College’s HelpDesk system. If you are in need of immediate assistance you may contact your ITA directly. The HelpDesk system can be accessed at http://HelpDesk.WesleyanCollege.edu. See an ITA or CIR Department staff member for additional information.

Non-residential students may receive assistance by entering a HelpDesk ticket into the system at http://HelpDesk.WesleyanCollege.edu or by leaving a message at 478-757-5239. Someone will contact you as soon as possible to determine the best solution to the problem.

USE OF COMPUTER AND INFORMATION RESOURCES POLICY
Before a student receives access to the network and its related resources (internet, e-mail, printing, and the Wesportal) the student must understand and agree to the College’s Computer and Information Resources Policy. This policy provides guidelines for network etiquette and the acceptable use of the College’s technology resources. It also provides information about the appropriate use of copyrighted materials (written, video and audio). The College’s Computer Information and Resources Policy can be downloaded from the College’s WesPortal -> Wesnet Tab -> Policies Menu.

If you have questions about the level of service provided, you may contact the Director of Computer and Information Resources by email at: kulshafer@wesleyancollege.edu or telephone at: 478-757-5125.

ENFORCEMENT
Any violation of these or other published policies for the appropriate use of computers, networks, and telephones must be reported to the Network Administrator or the Director of Computer and Information Resources. (The network or system administrator will temporarily suspend a user's account when it is deemed necessary to assure proper security of the College systems until a proper review is performed). Upon indication of a violation, the Director of Computer and Information Resources shall convene a hearing committee to review the case. For a student violation, the committee will consist of the following members of the campus community: Chancellor of Honor Council, Dean of Students, Vice President for Academic Affairs, Student Government President, and chair of Faculty Council. For a faculty violation, the committee will consist of the Vice President for Academic Affairs, chair of Faculty Council, and two members of the President’s Cabinet. For a staff violation, the committee will consist of the Director of Human Resources and three members of the President’s Cabinet. The Director of Computer and Information Resources shall be the chairperson of the hearing committees with voice and vote.

Each committee will review the information regarding the violation and determine if the user has violated the Use of Computer and Information Resources Policy. Based upon a review of the specific circumstances the hearing committee will follow the procedure outlined below.

For faculty and staff members, a policy violation will be considered a violation of terms of employment and thus will be handled according to the appropriate procedures as outlined in the faculty or staff handbook. All violations will be documented and filed in the appropriate faculty or staff personnel record.

For students, a violation will result in the suspension of user privileges, a fine, recommendation for suspension or removal, and/or any combination of the aforementioned sanctions. Generally, sanctions will be as follows:

- First Violation - $50.00 fine
- Second Violation - $100.00 fine & suspension of user privileges for one semester
- Third Violation - Recommendation to the Dean of Students for suspension of the student for a minimum of one year, or for permanent removal depending upon the severity of the situation.

Based on the severity of the incident, the hearing committee reserves the right to immediately move to a recommendation for suspension or removal. All violations will be documented and filed in the student’s records.

INTRODUCTION
Wesleyan College seeks to provide all members of the college community with an environment conducive to learning. Membership in this community entails rights and responsibilities for each of its members, and requires that members of the community treat others with civility and respect. The College reserves and will exercise the right to insist upon the highest standards of personal conduct from all members of its community.

This chapter establishes procedures to deal with violations of college standards. Behavior that violates the rights of others or the standards of academic or social life is not a private matter. Disciplinary action against any student may entail serious consequences. It may result in the student’s temporary or permanent separation from the college and thus may jeopardize her future career. It is the policy of the college that a student’s parents or guardian will be notified in the event of serious disciplinary action involving their student, subject to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974.

The college reserves the right to amend the rules and regulations of the college any time.

DEAN OF STUDENTS
The Dean of Students is vested with primary responsibility for administering non-academic policies related to student conduct. The Dean of Students may investigate and act on any allegations of student violations of college policy. Alternatively, the Dean of Students may refer such matter to the appropriate judicial board or to the Director of Residence Life as set forth below.

Upon receipt of an allegation of student misconduct or non-academic violation of the Honor Code, the Dean of Students will seek to determine the facts and relevant information relating to the complaint or allegation. The Dean of Students may interview the student or students against whom the allegations have been made. Before making a determination or imposing any sanction, other than an interim sanction, the Dean of Students will inform the student or students against whom allegations of misconduct have been made of the nature of the allegations. If the Dean of Students determines that the matter should be closed without further action, he/she may do so, and will so inform the student or students involved.

If the Dean of Students makes a preliminary determination that a student has violated college policy, the Dean of Students will notify the student in writing of the nature of the misconduct and will give the student an opportunity to meet with him or her. The Dean of Students will review the findings with the student and give the student an opportunity to respond. The failure of a student to meet with the dean will not prevent the Dean of Students from acting on the matter.
If the Dean of Students makes a preliminary determination that a student has violated College policy, the Dean of Students will determine whether the matter is to be referred to the Director of Residence Life or the Honor Council or resolved by her office. The fact that a matter has been referred to the Honor Council or Director of Residence Life does not prevent the Dean of Students from imposing an interim sanction pending resolution of the matter by such bodies. Interim sanctions may include, but are not limited to, not entering or being in or on particular buildings on the college, avoiding contact with a specific person or persons, removal from the residence halls or suspension of the student from the College.

If the Dean of Students determines that the matter is one that will be resolved by his/her office, he/she may make a formal determination of findings and impose such sanction or sanctions as he/she deems appropriate, up to and including expulsion from the College. The Dean of Students will inform the student of the student’s right to a hearing before the Student-Faculty Judicial Board if the student wishes to contest the findings. A request for a hearing must be made in writing to the Chief Judicial Officer within three business days of notification of the sanction.

Any act authorized by this code to be performed by the Dean of Students may also be done by an authorized designee of the Dean of Students.

ADJUDICATION POLICY AND APPEALS

The College supports administrative boards to handle infractions of the Honor Code, Student Code of Conduct, Residence Life Regulations, and other College policies. Any questions related to where a specific alleged violation of a College policy will be adjudicated should be directed to the Dean of Students. Except where the Dean of Students determines that the matter is one that will be resolved by her office, infractions will be referred as follows:

Alleged non-academic violations of the Honor Code will be heard by the Honor Council. (Alleged academic violations of the Honor Code will be decided as set forth in the section on “Academic Violations of the Honor Code”, with the right of the Honor Council to impose additional penalties as described therein.) A student may appeal the decision of the Honor Council to the Dean of Students within 3 business days of notification of the sanction. The decision of the Dean of Students is final.

Alleged violations of Residence Life policies and procedures will be adjudicated by the Director or Coordinator of Residence Life. A student may appeal the decision of the Director or Coordinator of Residence Life to the Dean of Students within 3 business days of notification of the sanction. The appeal decision is final.

Alleged violations of graduate school’s policies and procedures will be heard by the appropriate committee within the specific graduate program in which the student is enrolled.

All alleged violations of the Wesleyan College Sexual Misconduct Policy and the Non-Discrimination Policy will be handled according to the Wesleyan College Process for Resolving Complaints of Sexual Misconduct.

Alleged infractions of the Use of Computer and Information Resources Policy will be heard by the Hearing Committee, as provided for in the Use of Computer and Information Policy.

All alleged infractions of any College policy or procedure not specified above will be resolved per the College policy or by the Dean of Students. A student may appeal the decision of the Dean of Student to the Student-Faculty Judicial Board within 3 business days of notification of the sanction. The appeal decision is final.

When an alleged infraction is resolved by the Dean of Students without a hearing and the student appeals to the Student-Faculty Judicial Board, the appeal will be heard by the Student-Faculty Judicial Board using the procedures outlined below for hearings before the Honor Council. All other appeals from any process identified above are determined solely on the written record.

Any appeal must be based on one or more of the following grounds:

- Procedural error, if not corrected, would cause a significant difference in the determination and/or sanction
- Disciplinary actions extreme in relation to the violation
- New evidence not available during the investigation or hearing but is now available and is directly related to the case

The College reserves the right to manage infractions of the Honor Code, Student Code of Conduct, Residence Life Regulations and other College Policies by means of remote communications in lieu of in-person meetings or hearings, when the Director of Residence Life, Dean of Students or Advisor to Honor Council determines that the College community would be best served by conducting such proceedings remotely.
HONOR CODE

The Honor Code is the foundation upon which life in the Wesleyan College community is built. It is based upon the idea that individual freedom is a right founded upon responsibility. A student is expected to tell the truth, respect others and their property, and maintain integrity and honesty in all areas of College life.

Maintaining these principles of honor is the ideal toward which we strive. Our Honor Code is not destroyed by infractions of the rules; it is damaged when violations are tolerated. Membership in the College community involves establishing and maintaining these broad honor principles. It is understood that by becoming a student at Wesleyan, an individual signifies acceptance of the Honor Code and all policies and procedures set forth in Student Handbook, the Wesleyanne, elsewhere, and as enacted by College Officials.

Any member of the administration, faculty, staff, or student community should, when possible, confront a student for an honor offense at the time of the offense. Students who are unable to confront another student at the time of the offense should report the violation to the appropriate faculty or staff member who will then notify the accused of the alleged charge. Students may not report Honor Code violations anonymously. Students are highly encouraged to self-report.

HONOR PLEDGE
As a member of the Wesleyan College student body, I will uphold the Honor Code, strive for personal honesty and integrity in all areas of my life, and fulfill my responsibility for maintaining the Honor Code in the college community. Academic honesty and social honesty are integral to the Honor Code.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY
Academic violations of the Honor Code must be reported to the faculty member teaching the class. Academic violations of the Honor Code include, but are not limited to:

- Cheating: using or providing unauthorized information or aids on any examination or other graded assignment; altering a graded work prior to its return to a faculty member; doing another’s work or allowing another person to do one’s work, and submitting it for grading;
- Plagiarism: submitting material that in part or whole is not one’s own work without properly attributing the source(s) of its content;
- Unauthorized Collaboration: working with another person on a project, assignment, examination, test or quiz, unless collaborative work has been authorized by the instructor;
- Fabrication: inventing or falsifying information, data or citations; altering or creating any document or record affecting the grade or academic standing of one’s self or others;
- Multiple Submissions: submitting identical or substantially similar papers or coursework for credit in more than one course without prior permission of the instructor(s);
- Aiding and Abetting: providing material, information or other assistance which violates any of the above standards for academic integrity; providing false information in connection with any inquiry regarding academic integrity.

Faculty members should include in course syllabi specific statements about academic violations of the Honor Code and consequences for the course or assignment grade. Faculty members will report all academic violations of the Honor Code to the Provost’s office. If a student receives an academic penalty for the violation, the Provost will notify Honor Council, who will then determine if additional social penalties should be given.

INTEGRITY CIVILITY IN THE ACADEMIC COMMUNITY
Students, faculty, and staff are expected to treat one another with respect in all interactions. In the classroom, rude, disruptive and/or disrespectful behaviors as determined by a faculty member interfere with other students’ rights and with the instructor’s ability to teach. Therefore, any student exhibiting unacceptable behaviors during a class will be asked to leave and will be counted absent for that class period. Failure to cooperate with this process will result in disciplinary action that may include withdrawal from the class or dismissal from the College. Violations will be reported to the Provost.

SOCIAL HONESTY AND COMMUNITY LIVING
Life on campus and in the residence halls brings certain rights and privileges, as well as the responsibility of consideration for other students. Rules and regulations concerning the operation of the residence halls and apartments are stated in the Residence Life Guidelines section of the Wesleyanne. Rules and regulations concerning the overall expectations of students can be found in the Wesleyanne and are incorporated into the Wesleyan Honor Code, which students are sworn to uphold.
SOCIAL INTEGRITY
Students should conduct themselves with personal integrity in every social and interpersonal situation. Students are expected to tell the truth and respect others at all times. This includes but is not limited to administrators, faculty, staff, students, and guests of the campus both in and out of the classrooms, administrative buildings, arboretum and other areas on campus. Additionally, this includes college sponsored trips and activities occurring off campus and the applicable service areas where those events are being held.

ACADEMIC VIOLATIONS OF THE HONOR CODE
If a faculty member suspects a student of an academic violation of the Honor Code, he/she:

1. Must discuss the suspected infraction directly with the student(s) involved. At the faculty member’s or the student’s discretion, the department chair of the student’s academic advisor, or the division chair of may be present during this discussion;
2. Must make copies of relevant materials before returning them to the students(s);
3. May discuss the suspected infraction and the documented evidence with the program director and/or other faculty colleagues. In all such cases, the privacy of the student(s) involved must be protected;
4. Must make a decision based on the evidence. Faculty may warn students or sanction them. Sanctions may include reducing the assignment, exam or course grade. If sanctions are imposed, faculty must discuss the sanctions and the appeals process (see below) with the student;
5. Must notify the Provost in writing if the determination was made that a student has violated the Honor Code, whether the Faculty member only warned the student or imposed sanctions on them by completing the Report of an Academic Violation of the Honor Code.

If the faculty member discovers the suspected academic integrity violation at the end of the semester and cannot discuss the incident directly with the student, the faculty member may assign an incomplete grade. The student will then be required to discuss the suspected infraction with the instructor and resolve the incomplete following the College’s timeline as stated in the catalogue.

If a student does not respond to a faculty member’s repeated requests to discuss a violation of academic integrity, the faculty member may impose a sanction after consulting with the Provost.

If violations of the Honor Code are deemed serious enough by the faculty member and the Provost, students forfeit the right to withdraw from the class with a W grade.

Students who violate the Honor Code more than once may have a sanction imposed by the Provost in addition to the sanction levied by the course instructor, including (but not limited to) forfeiting the right to graduate with Latin honors, academic probation, academic suspension, or academic exclusion. Students have the right to appeal these additional sanctions (see step three below). The Provost will inform the student(s) of their right to appeal.

Appeals Process
Students who are found to have committed academic violations of the Honor Code may appeal using the following steps. All requests for appeal must be written and submitted to the faculty member within five business days of the student’s being notified of sanctions resulting from an academic violation of the Honor Code. All grade appeals that involve violations of academic integrity should follow the procedure immediately below.

Step One:
The student petitions the instructor in writing, citing the reasons for her appeal. The student should keep a copy of the letter for her personal records. Within five business days after receiving the appeal, the instructor will submit a written response to the student.

Step Two:
a. If, after the faculty member’s review, the dispute remains unresolved, the student will consult with the division chair and submit a copy of the appeal and any other documents related to the appeal, including the response from the instructor. The division chair will attempt to resolve the dispute between the instructor and the student and may consult with other persons who have relevant information. Within five business days after receiving the appeal, the division chair will submit a written response to the student with a copy to the instructor.

b. If the dispute is with the division chair, the student will meet with the Provost of the College. Within five business days after meeting with the student, the Provost will submit a written response to the student with a copy to the division chair.

Step Three:
If all efforts to resolve the dispute at the individual and division level fail, the student may petition the Provost of the College to review the appeal. If the Provost determines the need for a review committee to examine the issues of the appeal, the committee shall consist of two faculty members - one from the instructor’s program and one from an academic division other than that of the instructor - and two students - the chancellor of the Honor Council and another member of the Honor Council chosen by the chancellor. The committee, if appointed, will advise the Provost of the College regarding the appeal, and the Provost, if necessary, will serve as the tie-breaking vote for the committee.

Note: Appeals of sanctions imposed by the Provost because of repeated violations will start at Step Three. For any appeal, the Provost may make exceptions to the timeline for faculty responses as needed.

If the faculty member and/or Provost impose an academic penalty for an academic violation of the Honor Code, and if an appeal (if there is one), upholds a penalty for that violation, the Provost will notify Honor Council of the violation. Honor Council will use information from the Report of an Academic Violation of the Honor Code and a discussion with the student (following the process laid out in The Student Handbook) to decide if additional penalties, such as demerits, will be imposed. These additional penalties from Honor Council will reflect the damage to our community that academic violations of the Honor Code cause.

JUDICIAL BOARDS
The College supports two judicial boards to handle infractions of the Honor Code, including violations of College policies. Infractions will be heard by the appropriate judicial board or handled administratively as deemed appropriate. The judicial boards are the Honor Council and Student-Faculty Judicial Board. Descriptions of the functions of each board as well as information regarding reporting violations, hearing procedures, rights of the accused, sanctions, and appeal processes are listed below. Any questions related to the judicial boards or Honor Code should be directed to the Dean of Students. Graduate Students will follow all policies and procedures as set by each graduate program and the College Catalogue.

Infractions of the “Use of Computer and Information Resources” policy will be heard by a Hearing Committee as described in the “Use of Computer and Information” policy or reported to Honor Council as deemed appropriate.

HONOR COUNCIL
Honor Council adjudicates violations of the Wesleyan College Honor Code and student-related policies. All non-academic violations must be reported to the Dean of Students or the Chief Judicial Officer. Honor Council is charged with determining sanctions of the Honor Code and deciding issues of social honesty and integrity and honor system social conduct violations. The Provost can send egregious academic violations to Honor Council for additional investigation or penalties. The members of Honor Council include the Chancellor, the Judicial Secretary/Treasurer, the Judicial Clerk, one representative from each class. The Honor Council must have quorum in order to conduct any hearing. Quorum is defined as 51% of all elected voting members. Class Representatives are voting members of Honor Council. The Advisor and Officers are non-voting members.

SOCIAL VIOLATIONS OF THE HONOR CODE
REPORTING A VIOLATION AND PROCEDURES FOR ACTION
- Any member of the administration, faculty, staff, or student community should, when possible, confront a student for an honor offense at the time of the offense. Students who are unable to confront another student at the time of the offense should report the violation to the appropriate staff member who will then notify the accused of the alleged charge within 24 hours. Students may not report Honor Code violations anonymously.
- The accused has 24 hours from that time to report the incident by speaking to the Chief Judicial Officer. Students are highly encouraged to self-report. Honor Council will take this into consideration.
- The accuser will report the charges to the Chief Judicial Officer.
- The Judicial Secretary will notify the accused in writing of the charges, the procedures, and the date and time of the hearing at least 48 hours before the scheduled hearing. In emergency situations, 48 hours may not be provided.
- A hearing will be held to hear accounts of the incident by both the accuser and accused. If the accused does not attend the hearing, it will be held in the student’s absence and the student will forfeit the right to appeal. If a student has class or professional obligation during a scheduled hearing time, she may request a new hearing time. No other change requests will be honored. Requests for a new hearing due to an academic obligation must be made prior to 3pm on the day of the hearing.
- Honor Council will deliberate; decide on a verdict and sanction (if necessary).
- Students will be notified in writing of the hearing outcome.
- Appeals can be made to the Dean of Students (as outlined below) at which time they can be upheld, amended, returned to Honor Council to be heard, or referred to the Student-Faculty Judicial Board. All appeal decisions are considered final.
- If charges are brought between semesters or during the week of final exams, Honor Council will make every effort to hear the case. In the event that Honor Council has dismissed or is not in session for the semester, the violation will be handled through either a deferred hearing or resolved by the Dean of Students or Chief Judicial Officer. The Dean of Students has the ultimate authority in determining whether a deferred hearing will be held or whether the case will be resolved administratively.
Deferred Hearing: When allowable, Honor Council will defer a case brought between semesters or during the week of final exams to the following semester in order to allow a student to represent themselves during the hearing with the full board. This is not permitted with students who are not returning to the college, when a student is graduating or in other situations as deemed necessary by the Dean of Students.

Administrative Resolution: If a scheduled hearing or deferred hearing is not possible, the case will be resolved administratively by the Dean of Students or Chief Judicial Officer. If resolved administratively, the same appeal process will be followed.

THE RIGHTS OF AN ACCUSED STUDENT
A student who has been accused of an Honor Council violation:

- Will have the case heard without undue delay
- Will receive written notice of the charges, procedures and date and time of the scheduled hearing no less than 48 hours before the scheduled hearing with the exception of extenuating circumstances.
- May testify or remain silent
- Can present witnesses and/or evidence on their own behalf
- May appeal to the Dean of Students, only when in attendance at initial hearing.

THE RIGHTS OF AN ACCUSER

- Will receive written notice of the date and time of the scheduled hearing no less than 48 hours before the scheduled hearing with the exception of an extenuating circumstance.
- Must be present at the time of the hearing unless the accuser has an academic class or professional obligation. If the accuser has another obligation and their absence has been approved by the Dean of Students, the student may present a written statement regarding their firsthand knowledge of the violation. Written documentation must be presented to the Honor Council Advisor no later than 3pm on the day of the hearing. In the case of an academic violation such as plagiarism involving faculty, the faculty member may provide written documentation consisting of a copy the original paper and plagiarized source in lieu of their attendance.
- If an accuser fails to attend the hearing or submit the appropriate documentation by the set deadline, the case will be dismissed.
- The accuser can present witnesses and/or evidence of the violation committed by the accused student.

HEARING PROCEDURES

- The accused will be called into the Honor Council room, at which time the Judicial Clerk will explain the hearing procedure and the accused will be reminded that she is bound by the Honor Code and is required to tell the truth.
- The accused will be informed that the proceedings will be recorded to insure accuracy and for appeal purposes.
- The Judicial Clerk will state the student’s name and the charges being brought against them.
- The accused will be asked to plead responsible or not responsible to the charges brought against them.
- The accused will be asked to state their name and will be given the opportunity to present their case.
- Honor Council members will be given the opportunity to question the accused. The accused will then leave the room.
- The accuser will be brought into the room and asked to present his or her account of the incident and to present any witnesses appearing before Honor Council must present firsthand knowledge of the violation. Character witnesses are not allowed.
- After the accuser presents all testimony, they will leave the hearing.
- The accused will re-enter the room for questioning by the Board. The accused has the right to present a defense and to offer testimony and that of any witnesses (maximum of three (3)).
- The Chancellor may limit unproductively long, repetitive or irrelevant questioning.
- The accused will be given an opportunity to present a closing statement.
- The Chancellor will inform the accused that the results of the hearing will be presented, in person or via College-facilitated web conferencing software, and that the accused will be required to coordinate a meeting with the Chancellor within 24 hours of the hearing by e-mailing honorcouncil@wesleyancollege.edu. The accused will leave the hearing.
- After the case has been presented, the Council will hold confidential deliberations. A decision will be rendered, and the accused will be notified in person or via College-facilitated web conferencing software and in writing within twenty-four (24) hours of the conclusion of the hearing. Students are responsible for checking their mailbox for hearing notifications and completion of sanctions (when applicable).
- If found responsible, the accused is required to complete the sanction by the designated deadline or will be referred back to Honor Council for a sanction violation hearing.

Note: Students are required to represent themselves. Legal or parental representation is not permissible in Honor Council proceedings or appeal hearings.
REPORTING PROCEDURES WHEN NO ACCUSER IS NAMED
Special procedures have been set in place for Honor Code violations where no accuser is named. These special procedures are in place for the following situations:
- Any student who self-reports and accepts responsibility for a violation but does not name an accuser
- Any student involved in a situation where no accuser is present
- Any number of students involved in a situation which would cause all students involved to accuse each other of similar policy violations. This includes but is not limited to a fight between two students that would result in both students accusing the other of misconduct.

HEARING PROCEDURES WHEN NO ACCUSER IS NAMED
In the situation where no accuser is named in an Honor Code Violation, the following hearing procedures will be followed:
- The student self-reports the policy violation to the Dean of Students or Chief Judicial Officer.
- The student will be summoned to an Honor Council hearing according to the policies listed above, under the Reporting a Violation and Procedures for Action section.
- Procedures for the hearing will follow those listed in the Hearing Procedures section listed above. However, steps 6 and 7 will be omitted due to the absence of an accuser. In the event of a violation that would involve multiple students accusing each other of similar violations (as listed under Example #3 in the Reporting Procedures When No Accuser is Named), Honor Council will schedule a joint hearing of all individuals involved in order to eliminate excessive and prolonged individual hearings for each accused student.

Hearing Procedures for a joint hearing will be as follows:
- The accused students will be called into the Honor Council room, at which time the Judicial Clerk will explain the hearing procedure and the accused students will be reminded that they are bound by the Honor Code and are required to tell the truth. The accused students will be informed that the proceedings will be recorded to insure accuracy and for appeal purposes.
- The Judicial Clerk will state each student’s name and the charges being brought against that particular student. The Judicial Clerk will do this for each student involved.
- After each student’s name is read and the violations have been stated, the hearings will proceed in the following fashion:
  - Step 1 - The first accused student will be asked to plead responsible or not responsible to the charges brought against them.
  - Step 2 - She will then be asked to state their name and will be given the opportunity to present their case.
  - Step 3 - Honor Council members will be given the opportunity to question that particular accused student about the information she has presented.
  - Steps 1-3 will be followed for each additional accused student involved. To ensure fairness, the initial order of accused students will be predetermined using alphabetical order of last name.
- Each accused student will be allowed to ask questions of their fellow accused students or will be allowed to present witnesses on their behalf. The same predetermined order will be used for the remainder of the proceedings. All witnesses appearing before Honor Council must present firsthand knowledge of the violation. Character witnesses are not allowed.
- The Chancellor may limit unproductively long, repetitive or irrelevant questioning and statements.
- After all witnesses have been presented, the board will be given a final opportunity to question each accused student.
- Each accused student will be given an opportunity to present a closing statement.
- After all closing statements have been given, the Chancellor will inform each of the accused that they have twenty-four (24) hours to schedule a meeting to receive the results of the hearing by e-mailing honorcouncil@wesleyancollege.edu.
- After the case has been presented, the Council will hold confidential deliberations. During deliberations, each student will be processed separately and separate findings will be rendered. After a decision has been rendered for each student, separate sanction letters will be presented to each student. The accused students will be notified in person or via College-facilitated web conferencing software and writing within twenty-four (24) hours of the conclusion. Students are responsible for checking their mailbox for hearing notifications and completion of sanctions (when applicable).
- If found responsible, the accused is required to complete the sanction by the designated deadline or will be referred back to Honor Council for a sanction violation hearing.

Note: Students are required to represent themselves. Legal or parental representation is not permissible in Honor Council proceedings or appeal hearings.

HONOR COUNCIL POSSIBLE SANCTIONS
The following are possible sanctions available to Honor Council; others may be used if deemed appropriate by the Council.
- Demerits: A notation that becomes a part of the student’s permanent college judicial record. The accumulation of 10 will be grounds for a recommendation for suspension or expulsion to the Dean of Students.
- Educational Endeavor - Completing educational projects relevant to the violation, including but not limited to a reflection paper, visits to the Writing Center, educational pamphlet/bulletin board/poster, etc.

- Fines - Honor Council may assess fines (up to $100) which are appropriate for the violation.

- Probation - A period of time, as determined by Honor Council, during which a student is restricted from participating in all campus social events, activities, clubs, and organizations. Probation does not prohibit a student from participating in convocations, work study or academic obligations.

- Restrictions - A period of time, as determined by Honor Council, during which a student is restricted from participating in certain campus social events, activities, clubs, organizations, and athletics. Honor Council will determine which events are restricted from participation during this time period in placed of restricting all involvement. Restrictions can also limit or remove a student’s residence hall visitation privileges.

- Removal from the Residence Halls - Recommendation to the Dean of Students for removal from the residence halls, with loss of residence hall privileges including visitation to students in the residence halls. If removed, no refund of fees will be given and full payment of room and board are required to be paid for the current semester. A student may be considered for readmission to the residence halls if outlined at the time of removal. The Director of Residence Life may consider return to residence halls.

- Expulsion from the College - Recommendation to the Dean of Students for expulsion from the College, with loss of visitation privileges for on-campus and College sponsored events. If expelled, no refund of fees will be given and full payment of room, board and tuition are required to be paid for the current semester. A student may be considered for readmission if outlined at the time of expulsion. The Dean of Students may consider readmission.

- Repayment of Damages - Honor Council may require a student to cover the cost of damages incurred during a policy violation. Damage fees will be assessed by the Director of Residence Life along with the Director of Physical Plant under the direction of College Administration. Repayment of damages are not limited to the $100 fine limit as defined above.

- Service - Performing relevant services for the college or off-campus agencies as designated by the Honor Council. Hours to be performed not in conjunction with scholarship hours.

- Suspension - Recommendation to the Dean of Students for the immediate or deferred exclusion from classes, residence halls, and other privileges (as set forth in the notice of suspension) for a period of time (one semester minimum) at the end of which the student may be considered for re-admission by the Dean of Students. If suspended, no refund of fees will be given and full payment of room, board and tuition are required to be paid for the current semester.

- Warning - A written statement to the individual that the individual has violated a college regulation or policy and that repetition of the same offense or any other violation may be cause for more severe disciplinary action. All previous violations will be taken into account when assessing a sanction if a student comes before Honor Council again during their tenure at Wesleyan College. Other sanctions not listed above may be issued by the Honor Council Board as deemed appropriate as they pertain to a particular violation.

If the Honor Council recommends removal from the residence halls, or suspension or expulsion from the College, the Dean of Students shall decide whether to adopt such recommendation.

APPEALS

A formal, typed appeal must be presented to the Dean of Students, within 3 business days after the notification of the sanction has been delivered to the student. The student must state the reasons for the appeal (as outlined below) and present evidence to support the claim that the verdict (responsible or not responsible), the sanction, or both were unfair or unwarranted based on the Grounds for Appeal listed below. The Dean of Students reserves the authority to uphold or amend the sanction or to have Honor Council rehear cases when deemed appropriate or refer the case to the Student-Faculty Judicial Board. In cases where Honor Council makes a recommendation to the Dean of Students for removal from the residence halls, expulsion from the college, or suspension and the Dean of Students approves such recommendation, the appeal will be referred to the Student-Faculty Judicial Board. When a student submits an appeal, the initial sanction and actions taken by Honor Council will be administered and all deadlines must be met. In the event an appeal decision is rendered that overturns the initial outcome or sanction from Honor Council, the actions can be reversed. Appeal decisions are final.

GROUNDS FOR APPEAL

The following are the only grounds for appeal regarding Honor Council cases.

- Evidence was not available at the time of the Honor Council decision, but is now available and is directly related to the case.

- The Honor Council did not follow proper procedure.

- The sanction is extreme in relation to the violation.

LOSS OF APPEAL PRIVILEGES

An accused student will lose their right to appeal the decision of Honor Council in the following ways:

1. The student has not attended the Honor Council hearing and the hearing was heard in absentia.
2. The student has failed to complete the sanctions from the initial hearing and is brought before the council for a Sanction Violation hearing. All Sanction Violation results are final regardless of a student’s attendance at the Sanction Violation Hearing.

CONFIDENTIALITY
The Honor Council, the Dean of Students, and other related persons will maintain confidentiality related to cases and all surrounding circumstances. Hearings are open to relevant parties only as designated by the Chief Judicial Officer. All college judicial cases are confidential. Cases, students involved, outcomes, or any related circumstances will not be discussed. Exceptions include relevant administrators associated with the case on a need to know basis as defined by the designated College official. Accusers may inquire as to whether or not cases have been processed by Honor Council, however verdicts remain confidential.

PROTECTION FROM RETALIATION
Retaliation against an individual who makes a report of a policy violation or assists in providing information relevant to a policy violation is a serious violation. For additional details and the full policy see the Non-Retaliation Policy as posted on WesPortal.

RECORDS
Copies of the official correspondence related to all cases will be placed in the student’s permanent file by the Honor Council Advisor in Student Affairs. Student files are kept confidential and released only with an official request. (See the FERPA Policy for more information on privacy rights.)

STUDENT-FACULTY JUDICIAL BOARD
A student who is found responsible of misconduct by the Dean of Students or the Honor Council or who has interim sanctions placed against him or her by the Dean of Students may appeal the determination and sanctions to the Student-Faculty Judicial Board. Committee members include the Advisor of Honor Council (Chair, non-voting except in the case of a tie), four staff members selected by staff council, four faculty members with two years teaching at the College, elected by the faculty representing four different divisions, and four students selected from the student body through an application and interview process conducted by the Chief Judicial Officer and the Honor Council Advisor. Students on Honor Council are not eligible to serve. Individual hearings will include two of the four faculty members, two of the four staff members and two of the four students. The Chair will select participants based on availability and analysis of any potential conflicts of interest. The decision of this board is final.

If, during the summer or during any other period, sufficient members of the Student-Faculty Judicial Board are not available to hear an appeal, the Office of the Provost, at the request of the Dean of Students, may designate individuals to serve as interim members of the Board for the purpose of hearing the appeal.
APPENDIX A: TITLE IV STUDENT CONSUMER COMPLAINT PROCESS

Wesleyan College is a Title IV institution. In order to maintain compliance with federal regulations, Wesleyan College is required to disclose procedures for filing a complaint with its state authorizing agency.

Wesleyan College is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools and authorized by the Georgia Department of Education to confer postsecondary degrees. Therefore, the College will provide the following information about the formal student complaint process to all students.

All members of the Wesleyan College community are strongly encouraged to engage one another informally to resolve issues before filing a formal complaint. If an informal approach does not yield a satisfactory resolution, a student may undertake the following formal complaint process.

Descriptions of GNPEC student complaint rules and access to the complaint process is found at https://gnpec.georgia.gov/student-complaints.

Complaints not addressed through this process include:
- Complaints regarding Federal Student Aid. Complaints should be addressed to the U.S. Department of Education.

Alma Mater Hail, Wesleyan, thou emblem of all that is grand;
The noblest, the greatest, in all our fair land.
Thine ideals are honored, thy name always blest;
A fountain of knowledge, the oldest and best.

A star in the dark is thy glorious past,
Forever and ever thy glory shall last.
Upholding thine ideals, thy daughters shall be True, faithful, and loyal, dear Wesleyan, to thee.
